The Salem substation of the State Highway Patrol passed its annual inspection Wednesday with a rating of excellent.

Nine officers, six cars, a motorcycle and the patrol barracks on the Lisbon Road got a thorough-going over by an inspecting team from general headquarters in Columbus and district headquarters in Warren.

Shown above, ready for inspection, are (left to right) Sgt. D. M Hartsock of Warren, Patrolmen M. R. Darrah, J. H. Rogers, N. A. Kanagy, J. C. Kasper, T. A. Davis, W. R. Jones, J. F. Miller, J. B. Degree Work, Talks Scheduled At K. of C. Rally On Sunday

District Deputy Edwin T. McCue of Alliance will be in charge of the second and third degrees Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the Memorial Building when the Salem Knights of Columbus Council will be host for District 11 of the state.

Candidates for these degrees will be from Salem, Leetonia, Alliance, and surrounding territories.

The class of candidates will be known as "The John Entrikin Class," in honor of the late John Entrikin. A mass card will be presented posthumously to his daughter, Margaret, at a banquet at the Saxon Club at 6:30 p.m. The banquet is for members and their guests.

Mr. Entrikin, who was one of the most outstanding members of the Salem Council, was initiated into the Knights of Columbus in 1904, and served in every chair office of the third degree. He was grand knight three different years and held the state office of district deputy. He was active in degree work with the Salem and Leetonia Councils for the first degree, and active in second and third degree work throughout the State of Ohio. Mr. Entrikin was also a fourth degree member.

At the banquet, charter and 25 year members will be given special recognition, as well as past chaplains and past grand knights. The Knights of Columbus Charter was given to the Salem Council Oct. 31, 1915.

The principle speaker at the banquet will be K. of C. Ohio State Deputy Jack M. Malloy of Findlay. Mr. Malloy has served in this capacity two years. Prior to that time, he served as state secretary, state treasurer, state membership chairman and district deputy. He was also grand knight of his home council of Findlay from 1935 to 1937. Mr. Malloy, assisted by Grand Knight Daniel C. Buchmann, will present honorees with their tokens.

Other state officers expected to attend the affair Sunday are assistant to the state deputy, Ray H. Bernert of Steubenville; state secretary Larry N. Rogers of Warren and state membership chairman, Don Emerson of Bay Village.

Members of the Salem Council will honor the memory of Brother Entrikin by receiving Holy Communion at the mass they attend Sunday.

A reception will be held at the Knights of Columbus home Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. for wives of members of the organization.

Senate Shelves Atrocities Probe

Help For French In Asia Discussed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to inquire into Red atrocities against prisoners of war in Korea has been put temporarily on a Senate shelf.

After being assured that the Army and State Department will step up collection of evidence with a veiw to later war crimes prosecutions of the Communists for any atrocities against United Nations prisoners, the Senate Appropriations Committee dropped plans to investigate.

Some members of the committee, like Senators Ellender (D-La) and Magnuson (D-Wash), haid they regarded yesterday's two-hour inquiry, ordered by Chairman Bridges (R-NH), as "premature."

Rep. Judd (R-Minn) said, meanwhile, that the Communists are using the exchange of sick and wounded prisoners to divert American attention from "the main campaign"—a thrust toward rich Southeast Asia. The drive started just after Peiping announced acceptance of U. N. proposals to exchange sick and wounded prisoners.

Rep. Zablocki (R-Wis) said the Laos campaign is "very serious" and agreed with Judd that the attack should be turned over to the United Nations. Laos has petitioned for U. N. help but no action has been taken.

The two congressmen are members of a four man foreign affairs subcommittee which returned recently from a swing through the Far East.

Judd said Southeast Asia "always has been the main target" of the Communists and that Indochina, its gateway, must be held.

Zablocki voiced the opinion that the U. S. "cannot continue aiding the French in Indochina until the French bring us assurances of honorable intentions" to give the Viet Nam natives more freedom.

"I feel it is futile and dangerous on our part to assist the French if we are going to be listed as colloborators to colonialism," Zablocki said.

The Senate committee's decision not to hold hearings on the atrocities reported in Korea was announced by Bridges. He said Walter Bedell Smith, under secretary of state, and other officials told the committee in a closed session they were concerned over the publicity already given released sick and wounded Americans in Korea.

Germ Warfare Probe Voted By United Nation

Investigation Ordered Of Communist Charge Against United States

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly today voted overwhelmingly for an impartial investigation of Communist charges that American troops waged germ warfare in Korea.

The vote, 51-5 (Soviet bloc) with four abstentions came immediately after the U. S. accused Russia with "utterly and completely iniquitous' behavior for spreading the charges and called Soviet opposition to the investigation "reprehensible in the extreme.'

U. S. Delegate Ernest A. Gross made the gloves off attack on Russia as the U. N. Assembly began the last day of its stormy seventh session.

Chief Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky immediately took the floor and counter-charged that U. S. denials of germ war were "reckless denials of act" and said the kind of investigation the U. S. wanted was based on "hypocrisy and falseness.'

The tense atmosphere cleared for a moment shortly afterwards as both Russia and the U.S. joined in support of a Mexican resolution calling on all countries to help Burma get rid of 12,000 Chinese Nationalist guerrillas who have been operating on her soil.

The vote was 59-0 with Nationalist China abstaining.

U. S. Atomic Energy Budget Faces Slash

WASHINGTON, April 23 (AP)—Rep. Price (D-Ill) said today the new administration is planning to cut spending for atomic energy "to the bone' at a time when "the Kremlin is stepping up the tempo of its atomic effort."

Cuts of hundreds of millions of dollars will be made in former President Truman's two billion dollar atomic energy budget for the year starting July 1, Price said in an interview.

However, Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee, said in a separate interview the extent of reductions has not been finally decided. He said the Truman budget for atomic energy is still under review by the Budget Bureau.

He expressed belief the Eisenhower administration "will not touch the heart" of the program because, he said, it is "convinced of the importance" of expanding it.

Price, a member of Cole's committee, cautioned Congress in a speech prepared for House delivery against "ill advised' funds cuts. He said he believes cuts already decided upon by the administration will be so deep that "any more reductions by Congress will affect the expansion program.'

Price said he was not protesting administration reductions but

Ike Warns Allies Against Relaxing Defense Buildup

Declares Conditions For Genuine Peace Not Yet Established

PARIS (AP)—President Eisenhower warned America's Allies in the North Atlantic Alliance today not to relax their rearming because of the Russian peace campaign—that "until the conditions for genuine peace have been firmly established, it would be foolhardy for us to delude ourselves about the dangers confronting us.'

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles read the President's message to the opening session here of a three-day meeting of the 14-nation NATO Council of Ministers.

Eisenhower's warning did not specifically mention the recent change in the Russian line, but his implication was apparent in the light of the ministers' avowed intention to discuss fully, and assay, the conciliatory line Moscow has taken since the death of Stalin.

"We deplore the fact,' Eisenhower wrote, "that civilized nations are compelled at this stage of human history to devote so large a portion of their energies and resources to the purpose of military defense.

"I have tlready expressed the hope that it will be possible in the foreseeable future to devote part of these resources and energies to more constructive purposes. I know that this can be accomplished if all nations will cooperate sincerely in creating the necessary conditions for lasting peace."

But "realization of this opportunity," Eisenhower added in another clear reference to the Soviet Union, "will depend primarily on the deeds of others.'

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, in a major policy statement by France for the NATO ministers, accused the Communists of launching a new attack in Indochina while talking of peace in Korea. Bidault referred to the Vietminh invasion of the Kingdom of Laos.

NATO Secretary General Lord Ismay said Wednesday night:

"Until we can see genuine evidence of change in long-range (Russian) intentions, there can be no justification for relaxing our buildup."

With Western Europe chafing under the load of rearmament spending and leaders of the new U. S. administration already forecasting cuts in foreign aid, however, it was apparent the NATO Council at this session would not plan any big expansion.

The emphasis, instead, will be on (1) holding on to what already has been achieved; (2) planning for several more ground divisions, several thousand more aircraft and more ground installations in the next several years, and (3) setting up a long range program of slow building up aimed at continuing to keep the Soviet military might in check.

To do that, NATO's planners figure it will take more than 12 billion dollars next year. That is the total of the 14 nations' individual defense budgets, plus new programs the experts want to get under way.

Free Allied Prisoners Tell Of Red Treatment

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP)—Pain-wracked Allied soldiers, wounded only a few weeks ago in bloody fighting for outpost hills in Western Korea, came back from Communist captivity today.

Some managed a smile or a joke despite the pain of unhealed wounds. Others, pale with shock and suffering, gripped the sides of their litters.

A South Korean told of almost unbelievable cruelties by his North Korean captors. M. Sgt. Kim Ka Sung, 25, said the Reds climaxed their torture by hacking off all of his fingers—some with a saw.

Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the Eighth Army commander, called it "a scandalous case.'

Some U. S. Marines freed today lived through the tremendous mortar and artillery barrages and the hand-to-hand combat on Vegas and Reno Outposts March 26.

Some Colombians Freed

And there were some Colombians captured when Chinese overran nearby Old Baldy at about the same time. Ninety-six Colombians have been missing since that battle.

A young Navy hospital corpsman, Thomas Waddill, 20, of Ft. Worth, Tex., said Marines who had lost consciousness from lack of oxygen in a small cave on Outpost Reno were riddled with burp gun fire.

"I was in the cave when the outpost was hit,' he said. 'There were just three of us walking around. Lots of the guys were asphyxiated and snoring. The Chinese started spraying us with burp guns and grenades. They came in the cave. I got powder burns from a pistol. Then I got shot in the neck and I thought I was going to die. I just kept moving around and finally they captured me."

Knows of Other Prisoners

Pfc. Samuel J. Armstrong, 18, of San Antonio, Tex., captured on Vegas, said he knew of 10 other Americans captured in the bitter fight who still are prisoners. He said he was well treated.

Marine Pfc. Joseph Britt Jr. of Long Beach, Calif., captured in the same fight, said the Chinese gave him only battle dressings for several days. Britt was wounded in the arm and leg by shrapnel and had light shrapnel wounds on his head.

Britt said he was marched by the Chinese for about two hours until he collapsed from loss of blood.

"I didn't know I was wounded in the leg until I was in the hospital and they were my worst wounds,' he said. "I couldn't make them understand to take my boots off. About all they'd do was wrap you up.'

He was with six other Marines. He was not questioned very much but "they constantly question the other guys."

He Asked Questions

When he was questioned, he said, "I asked them questions to keep them from asking me questions. They thought I was quite the clown. I guess I am too good looking and too mean to die.

"They had their chance and they couldn't do it."

General Gruenther Says Allies Lack Reserve Power In Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was told today that Western military forces in Europe "probably could cope with any surprise Russian attack but lack the reserves to meet long-range requirements.

This testimony came from Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, chief of staff to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway at supreme Allied headquarters in Europe. Given at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee April 1, it was made public today coincident with Secretary of State Dulles' attendance at the North Atlantic Council meeting in Paris considering future plans for the building up of NATO's defense force.

Gruenther asserted NATO's situation was "vastly improved" over what it was at the start two years ago when its leaders worried "we might wake up some morning and find the whole (Soviet and satellite) force just pouring through, with warning that was no more than a matter of minutes."

He cautioned against cutting foreign aid so drastically that the French and other allies might fear "we are getting ready to pull out" of European defense.

Highly placed officials said Tuesday the Eisenhower administration is talking in terms of about a two billion dollar cut in former President Truman's $7,600,000,000 foreign aid request for the year starting July 1.

Gruenther told the committee there are still four million men under arms in the Soviet forces of 175 land divisions, 20,000 operational aircraft and upwards of 300 submarines.

Of the 175 divisions, 30 are stationed in Europe, the large part

Ike Broadens Peace Proposal

Will Confer Anywhere To Stop Korea War

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he is ready to do anything and confer anywhere to bring about peace in Korea.

The President told a news conference, however, that like everyone else he is simply waiting now to see how developments go in Korea.

His statements were in response to a question as to whether he felt the chances are good for a prompt truce in Korea.

In reply to another question, the President said he has had no reaction from the Kremlin to the world peace and disarmament plan he set forth a week ago.

He said the government is studying and analyzing the prisoner exchange situation, and that obviously, from news stories of atrocities, something is wrong.

He added that he as yet has no full and complete report on the matter and so can't determine what the actual facts are.

On other matters, the President:

1. Said he is confident defense spending will be cut for the fiscal year starting July 1, but he is not ready to estimate how much the saving will be.

2. Announced the National Security Council has advised him it would be advantageous to national security for the United States to participate in construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway. He said the council has made no recommendation yet as to the extent of American participation.

3. Said he believes it would have been wise for the House to vote funds to continue the administra-

Will Release All Sick, Wounded Allied Prisoners

Move Forestalls UN Protest On Exchange Of Disabled Captives

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists said today they would free more disabled Allied prisoners—a startling reversal of their earlier insistence on releasing only 605.

They did not say how many more, nor their nationalities. But they did pledge to return all sick and wounded Allied troops in North Korean stockades as well as those captured recently.

The unexpected move apparently stalled off a possible U. N. protest that the Reds were holding back some disabled captives.

Allied prisoners exchanged in four days have said many more seriously sick and wounded were left behind in North Korea.

Gratified at Response

Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. commander, said he was gratified that the Communists, "in response to repeated requests from the U. N. Command, have agreed to return . . . all UNC personnel in this category."

Some of the recently wounded prisoners came back Thursday, pale and unbelieving. The day's total was 14 Americans, 5 Australians, 6 Colombians and 75 South Koreans.

Forty more Americans are due Friday. So are 4 British, 4 Turks, 1 Hollander, 1 Canadian and 50 South Koreans.

As Thursday's group returned, the guns of war thundered just outside this neutral center where full-scale armistice negotiations resume Saturday.

Some wounds were fresh and still unhealed—Marines from the battle of the Panmunjom outposts earlier this month and Colombians caught in the Red onslaught over Old Baldy a few days before.

Some Men in Pain

The first eight patients were chalky-faced, some obviously in pain.

They were rushed to doctors for first aid and later to hospitals for full medical care.

Communists Release 3rd Ohio Soldier

ASHLAND, O. (AP)—A 4-year-old boy asked the two questions which today are closest to the hearts of the family of Staff Sgt. Ned M. Kelley, freed Wednesday night, a month after his capture by the Korean Reds.

Jackie, only child of the 23-year-old infantryman, wanted to know right away: "Is my daddy all right?"

Because he's only 4, Jackie didn't understand all the angles, and he also wanted to know: "Will he be home tonight?'

Mrs. Ruth Kelley, 26, got the good news on television. She jumped from her armchair and ran crying to a neighbor: "They've freed my Ned.

"Somehow, I couldn't picture him dead,' she said. "So many things can happen, but I just never had that feeling he would never come back."

On March 21, Mrs. Kelley had her last letter from Ned. And that day he was reported missing on combat patrol.

Kelley is the third Ohio soldier to be freed in the current Korean War prisoner exchange. First was Pfc. John Leslie Robinson, 20, of Wellston, then Pvt. Charles Sacco, 27, of Lorain.

The Kelleys, both Ashland County natives, were married six years ago. He attended high school at nearby Savannah and then went to work in the F. E. Myers Bros. Co. pump-manufacturing plant here.

He entered service in January, 1952, with the Ohio 37th at Camp Polk, La. Last November he was shipped to Korea where he served with E Co., of the Second Division's 38th Regiment.

Texarkana, Tex., said he knew of only four survivors among 41 Marines hit by Chinese on Outpost Reno.

Marine Pfc. Richard L. Oven of Buffalo, N. Y., was captured on Outpost Vegas after he was wounded by shrapnel in the leg and left hand.

"The outpost was about 800 yards forward. We were hit about the same time as Reno. We were in a bunker and could not get out.

The bunker started to cave in. There was another bunker on the hill and we tried to get to it but the barrage was too heavy.

Were Quickly Overrun

"When the barrage lifted a little, we heard the Chinese coming up the hill. We were overrun before we could leave the bunkers. They threw satchel charges and knocked the bunker in. We were trapped in there about three quarters of an hour. There were about 45 of us and about 10 were captured. The rest were killed, I guess.'

Oven said he was taken to a hospital about 75 miles behind the front.

"I believe it was the best medical treatment they had but they didn't have the equipment that we have,' he said.

All he thought about during his short captivity was "I wanted a steak dinner."

He smiled and added: "I think I'm up to it right now."

He called the Russian MIG15 one of the finest interceptor airplanes in the world, but said that in long range or strategic aircraft, "we have better types."

The NATO forces, Gruenther said, have "an emergency plan."

"That plan envisages the actions that would be taken if the Soviet force should move today," he said, adding:

"That doesn't mean that we necessarily have enough force now to meet this threat successfully. In fact, we think we do not, but you fight with what you have and you do the best you can."

A long-range plan, envisaging what the strategy should be, has been presented to the North Atlantic Council, he said.

"There are strains on the Soviet side, and particularly on the satellite side, but those strains, with the gun in the back keeping people in line, are not enough to give us any reason for believing that the empire is about to collapse in the fashion of the Roman Empire," he said.

"This will be an honest budget and Congress should accept it, instead of making automatic cuts."

Price and Cole agreed that Russia is making rapid progress in atomic development.

tion program for starting 35,000 public housing units. The House voted Wednesday to end the program. Eisenhower said, however, he does not feel House members who joined in the vote against funds for public housing were defying him.

4. Said he and other administration officials are studying plans for reorganization of both the State and the Defense Departments. The plan will be sent to Congress soon.

5. Declared emphatically plans for defense of Europe against possible Communist aggression cannot be based either on the idea that an attack might be imminent, or that it might come several years from now.

Anyone who tells you he can predict the day or hour of an attack is crazy, the President said.

6. Remarked he is not necessarily against any change in the reciprocal trade act but feels that a simple one-year extension beyond June 12 would be the best move at this time, pending further study of the situation.

7. Described the matter of opening up the atomic energy field to private industry as one which is challenging both the Atomic Energy Commission and other government agencies. Some changes in the law may be necessary to permit it, but certainly it is the hope of everyone that something can be done in that direction, the President added.

8. Said if any government officials have been discharged from important jobs for patronage reasons, he is completely unaware of it. He said he does not want things run that way.

9 In comment on the submerged oil lands legislation pending in the Senate, said his position has been stated many times.

10. Said there has been no diplomatic correspondence which has come to his attention regarding the possibility of a Four-Power conference on the world situation.

CONCERNED ABOUT BOXING

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP) —"Is Marciano still champ?"

That was the first thing Pfc. Vincent d'Andreo wanted to know when he was freed by the Communists today. The 2nd Division soldier, from Swampscott, Mass., was captured last March 5.

Reactions Mixed As Relatives Learn Of Prisoners' Release

By The Associated Press

A 17-year-old bride in Texas jumped up and down in joy, then broke into tears.

A 26-year-old wife in Ohio said quietly, "So many things can happen, but somehow I knew he'd be back."

Both had just learned their husbands were among the 14 American prisoners of war freed last night by the Communists.

And in Swampscott, Mass., a neighbor shouted to Papa Denoto d'Andreo: "Your boy is saved. Your boy is a prisoner released."

Said D'Andreo:

"Course I'm happy. As soon as I hear it I start to cry. But I don't want my wife to see me cry so I ran upstairs and said 'Mary thank God, our boy is safe' Then my wife started crying and she told me she is only crying for joy."

D'Andreo's boy is Vincent d'Andreo, 22, who was taken prisoner last March 5. The elder D'Andreo, a park department employe, said he had no plans for a party now 'but wait until my boy arrives back in the house. There'll be a real party."

The 17-year-old bride is Sue Lacy, wife of Cpl. Jimmie E. Lacy of Texarkana. They were married last Nov. 10. Lacy sailed for Korea Jan. 5 and was reported missing in action two months later.

Lacy's father Otto said his son had lied about his age to join the Marines and is only 17.

In Fort Worth, Tex., Thomas Waddill and his wife who thought their 20-year-old son Thomas Hood Waddill had been killed less than a month ago in Korea sat watching their television set. Suddenly they saw his name flashed on the screen as a returned prisoner. The youth had been reported missing in action March 28.

"I know it's my boy," said Waddill. "Nobody else in the world would have a name like that."

A San Antonio, Tex., woman who has had seven sons in the Marines at one time or another, learned one of her boys, Pfc. Samuel J. Armstrong, had been released.

The mother, Mrs. Ida Barnes, is confined to the Brooke Army Hospital at San Antonio for treatment of burns. When she heard the news she got out of bed and happily toured the ward, telling everyone her 19-year-old son was safe. Three other sons recently were returned home as Korean casualties and discharged.

Neighbors crowded into the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hart of Wantagh, N. Y., to join in a family celebration. The Hart's son, Marine Pfc. George F. Hart, was captured only last March 26 and freed yesterday.

Mrs. D. T. Akers of Bluefield, W. Va., said it was "prayers by the whole family" that brought back her son. Pfc. Charles Wesley Akers had been reported missing in action a month and a half ago.

At Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Mona Steinke, whose son had been reported missing, said, "we didn't even know he was a prisoner. All we knew was that he was missing." Pfc. Fred C. Steinke, 21, had been reported missing in action since March 5.

The first prisoner of war from Arizona to be released was Pfc. Ben McGhee of Phoenix. He is one of eight children in the family. Beamed Mrs. Constance McGhee:

"This is the best news we've ever had."

the arm of an American lieutenant as his litter was passed from a Red ambulance.

"No foolin', lieutenant, is this really changee-changee?'

"No foolin'," answered the officer.

One happy Colombian climbed through a back window of a Communist ambulance without waiting for the door to be opened.

The 14 Americans brought the total of U. S. troops returned to 79. The 40 promised for Friday would make a total of 119, just one short of the 120 promised originally by the Reds. However, the new Red move could raise that figure.

In four days of exchange, the Communists have returned 400 Allied troops—the majority South Korean—and the U. N. has returned 2,000 Communists, including all 700 Chinese scheduled to go home.

The Red offer to return more U. N. troops came at a special liaison officers meeting called by the U. N. amid speculation the Allies would demand more prisoners after hearing reports about those still in camps.

It came against a background of mushrooming charges that 1,500 Allied prisoners died of hunger and lack of medical attention, of clubbings and bayonetings and death marches along icy roads.

When the Communists first announced they would return about 600 disabled Allied prisoners, the UNC called the figure "incredibly small' and asked for a recount.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee San Cho said several times that the figures had been rechecked and that 600 was all.

But at this liaison meeting Lee told Allied truce delegate Rear Adm. John C. Daniel:

'I would like to inform your side that the sick and injured captured personnel whom our side is repatriating at this time include not only all the sick and injured captured personnel held in prisoner of war camps of our side but also those captured recently by our side at the front.

"Therefore the number of personnel to be repatriated by our side is more than the estimated figure which your side has been previously informed. As to the exact figure . . . your side will be informed daily according to the agreement of both sides.'

The meeting lasted only four minutes.

At Munsan, both Daniel and Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior United Nations truce delegate, expressed pleasure.

Legislators Hold Bingo Hearing

Ohio Senate Group Has 'Folksy' Session

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Should the Ohio Legislature give the voters a chance to decide on legalized bingo?

The question was put to the Senate Judiciary Committee Wednesday night in a folksy hearing and was good for more laughs than that staid committee has had since the turn of the century.

Testifying on a measure which ultimately would let the voters decide on constitutional sanction for bingo, one sincere woman assured the committee:

"I'd normally spend about $1.25 a night at a bingo game. You boys know it's better to spend your money that way than getting full of that much beer. When you get a dollar and quarter's worth of beer in you, they send for the Black Maria."

Asked by a committee member to define a "Black Maria" she replied:

"You know, it's that little black buggy the cops have."

The hearing on the constitutional amendment offered by Sen. Robert R. Shaw (R-Franklin) was the highlight of a legislative day. In other action:

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill by Sen. Delbert Latta (R-Hancock) to require convicted drunken drivers to spend at least three days in jail in addition to paying a fine of up to $500.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to force better rural service by permitting the state utilities commission to set minimum service standards, order repairs and order phones installed, provide such orders leave companies a fair return on their investments. The bill is a Republican policy measure.

The House Finance Committee trimmed Gov. Frank J. Lausche's 831 million dollar state budget for the next two years by 10½ millions. The money squeezed from the budget is expected to go toward an increase in the State's school subsidy. Lausche recommended 215 millions for schools. The Republican Legislature is inclined to a 227½ million appropration, and the 10½ millions brings the Legislature within shooting distance of the goal.

Bingo's friends made it ladies' night in the Senate judiciary committee.

Shaw presented his proposed constitutional amendment—as a means of giving "many of moderate or lower means a chance to play an interesting game in congenial surroundings.'

A law passed by the Legislature in 1943 exempted lotteries operated by a person "not for his own profit' from the constitutional ban on lotteries "forever.' Shaw and Thomas Maxson of Columbus, a witness in favor of the referendum on bingo, said a forthcoming decision of the Ohio Supreme Court may decide whether charitable bingo is legal.

Maxson represents a Columbus client in the pending Supreme Court case. He told the committee bingo is no different, in essence, from legalized horse race betting or "gambling" in stocks and grain futures.

One feminine witness in bingo's behalf said she was a mother-in-law who goes to church on Sunday, but is embarrassed by "sitting there and watching my daughter and her husband the rest of the week." The only other place she has to go, she said, is a bingo game.

Another woman, Mrs. Lucille Ruh, whose father and mother before her operated bingo games in Columbus for 30 years, told the senators she expected to draw only a salary from her late parents' reestablished game if bingo again becomes legal in Columbus. The rest of the game's take, she said, will go to charitable organizations.

Mrs. Ruh listed other cities in which bingo is popular but in which no professional gambling element exists as Delaware, Marion and Springfield.

Mrs. Roosevelt Says Russians Are Confused

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt yesterday expressed a belief "there is real trouble within the Soviet Union."

"I believe there is great confusion within the Soviet," she told a news conference sponsored by the American Association for the United Nations.

"They have no top hand at the helm, as they had before. We should, however, be as wise as possible and not go to sleep, but watch every indication and weigh every statement from Soviet representatives in order to determine if we can what is behind their policy."

Players' Production Contains Too Much Art

SHELBY, Neb. (AP)—There's too much "art" in the Shelby Village Players' latest production to suit some people.

They think a fig-leafed figure of Apollo and a bare-bosomed Venus in one of the sets could use more clothing.

The fuss was raised as the amateur cast of 30 rehearsed a dramatization of Lloyd C. Douglas's novel "The Robe" scheduled to be given next Monday and Tuesday.

"I don't believe such things have a place in a small town play," said one cast member, a housewife.

Artist Terence R. Duren, who painted the sets, said some people "say frankly they throw out statues and me with them ... It seems to me to be their way of showing contempt for art."

Get Rid Of Movie Censors

Only one thing can keep Ohio's General Assembly from getting rid of the state's obsolete law on motion picture censorship this year.

That is overdrawn arguments of the opposition. They could defeat themselves by demanding that legislators believe things which are not true and never were.

For example, they are asserting that Ohio movie censorship always has been a violation of freedom of the press. This argument springs from the fact that newsreels are subject to censorship.

But the argument skips two other facts—that newsreels did not exist when movie-makers of a generation ago were violating every standard of good taste and that newsreels today are only a small fraction of the movie industry's output.

The Ohio censorship law should be written off the statues but for another reason. Movies now are mature enough to police themselves through the Hays office. Exhivitors have developed a strong sense of responsibility. The public has learned to discriminate between the good and the bad in this important field of entertainment. There always will be dirty movies, but they will find their proper audience level.

Censorship laws in the early days restrained the movie-makers from hanging themselves in their own rope. Nothing could be sillier than to argue that Ohio has been doing something vicious and unconstitutional for a generation. Newton D. Baker, who first saw the need for public control of a new entertainment medium while it was developing its own sense of taste, knew more about constitutionality than all the people who now want to do the right thing for the wrong reason.

By ironic coincidence, the same session of the General Assembly which is going to abandon movie censorship is considering a state board to censor objectionable magazines whose publishers are making the same mistake. That invited censorship of movies while movie-makers were learning self-restraint.

Messrs. Schine And Cohn

There are days—many days—when Americans wonder if their government is collectively smart enough to represent them properly in foreign affairs.

Not only the government's acts but its representatives in foreign affairs reflect far too often the weakest of the American credos—that the United States is so lovable it has no need for tact.

At the moment, two fledgling Americans named Roy M. Cohn and Gerard David Schine are tactlessly whisking their way from one European capital to another under the auspices of the Senate investigations subcommittee; specifically, Sen. McCarthy.

Cohn, 26, and Schine, 25, are causing a general raising of European eyebrows over their invisible qualifications to be investigators at all, let alone investigators for the U. S. Senate. In European practice, it is customary to let young men be seen but not heard in public affairs.

The European division of the McCarthy branch of the U. X. State Department, in other words, has been having a vastly greater impact in Europe than the Dulles branch, which is the one charged with official responsibility for representing the United States abroad.

Carnegie To Grunewald

Some publishing firm which needs a bread-and-butter manuscript will miss a sure thing if it doesn't sign up Henry V. Grunewald to do a handbook on the art of friendship. There is no more mystery about Washington's "mystery man." It's all in the record now.

Grunewald's testimony before a House subcommittee reveals a magic touch which must make Dale Carnegie squirm with envy. But on the other hand, Carnegie isn't squirming before a House subcommittee.

Carnegie was satisfied to tell others how to make friends and influence people, whereas Grunewald put friendship to work in his own behalf—a telephone call here, a gift there, a favor, a costly trinket and a multi-thousand-dollar fee for introducing a couple of fellows who wanted to get together. And all this in connection with government, where knowing the right people at the right time is the magic key to success.

Grunewald had friendship figured out to a handclasp and the flutter of an eyelid. He made a handsome living with his mastery of a credo which once belonged to cynics but now should belong to the ages: "It Isn't What You Know That Counts; It's Who," by Henry V. Grunewald.

In a brewery fire 8000 bottles of beer exploded—taking us back to the days when we made our own.

A valuable cat was stolen from a millionaire's apartment. Does that come under the head of a feliny.

Overworked Privilege

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Time To Put End To Fifth Amendment Subterfuge

Using the typical Communist technique of attempting to confuse the issue, many witnesses who have been asked simple questions of fact by congressional investigating committees now are trying to abuse the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution by claiming that to answer would be to incriminate them.

The cry is being raised also that the congressional committees are endeavoring to force individuals against their will to disclose their "political beliefs."

Since membership in the Communist party has long been identified as association with an organization that seeks to accomplish the overthrow of the government of the United States by violence, it is difficult to see how such membership can be called "political."

Nobody who belongs to the Republican or Democratic or Socialist or Prohibition or American Labor party or any other minority party is as a rule afraid to disclose membership — he or she is usually proud of it.

It has been assumed by an unknowing public that the witnesses who refuse to testify before the congressional committees are somehow willing to tell everybody else the truth. As a matter of fact, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has contacted nearly all of the witnesses before they appear at the hearings of congressional committees investigating subversive activites and, in almost all cases, the witnesses who have declined to answer the committees have also refused to tell the FBI.

The argument given — namely, that to tell on oneself means involvement in "informing" on others—is more of an excuse than a reason.

Unfortunately, a number of "left wingers" are beginning to support the Communist technique either by swallowing the specious claim that to be a "Communist" is merely to hold a political view or by contending that to do one's duty as a citizen and "inform" is low moral behavior.

In all "state's evidence" turned in by "informers" in criminal trials in American were to be treated contemptuously — either as not credible or as unworthy — many criminals would never be convicted. To follow such logic, all persons in jail should be turned loose now if they were convicted through evidence furnished by "informers."

Thus Louis Budenz, a former Communist, has been attacked systematically by the "pink" element in America and by certain other folks who have been misled by "pink" propaganda.

The opinions or imaginings of Mr. Budenz on any theory or doctrine are not entitled to any more weight than anybody else's except where he has special familiarity and can qualify as an expert. But when he testifies on a fact — that is, as to whether he saw something with his own eyes or was told something by someone else — this type of testimony, when corroborated by other witnesses, is, of course, credible.

It so happens that the testimony of Louis Budenz has been presented to federal courts by the FBI, which stands back of him completely on all questions of fact on which he has been asked to testify before the courts.

Ex-Communists who have confessed their earlier misdeed take a big chance in "informing" on their former associates. They are subject to condemnation particularly by the "pink" elements in America, who disparage their efforts to earn a living by lecturing or writing on Communism.

This is denounced as "commercialism." Yet not a word is heard in condemnation of those who refuse to answer questions and insist on retaining their jobs without disclosing their clandestine relationships with Communist organizations.

Very little denunciation has come from the "left wing" of the Alger Hisses and the various persons in the State Department who have been dismissed in recent years on security grounds.

Former Senator George A. Wilson, of Iowa, has come forward with a suggestion that legislation be introduced which will safeguard the constitutional right of the citizen not to be compelled to testify against himself and yet protect the constitutional right of the Congress to elicit information without being defrauded through the use of the Fifth Amendment as a subterfuge.

He proposes that the same procedure now being used when witnesses appear before a grand jury, and refuse to answer questions on the ground of self-incrimination, be employed in connection with congressional committee hearings.

His idea is that a law be enacted whereby a witness who invokes the self-incrimination plea shall be promptly required to go before a U.S. judge in district court, and the witness shall be ordered to appear at a hearing and show cause why he should not answer the questions propounded.

Both the witness and the congressional committee would be represented by counsel. If the court finds the witness refuses to make full answers that he should make, he could order the witness to answer or be committed to jail for contempt.

While many of the questions asked of witnesses go far afield, Wilson says, "Surely they demonstrate that the claiming of self-incrimination is being used as a subterfuge and is worked overtime."

Mr. Wilson has been a governor, a member of Congress and a judge. His proposal is in line with others of the same kind pending before Congress.

Something About The Weather

By TRUMAN TWILL

Outside, while this is being written, a snow squall is swirling and howling down the street. Pedestrians who had expected to be strolling in the warm sun are huddled in their coats.

Everybody is complaining about the weather, how vile and unseasonable it is and how impatient they feel about it. Gardeners, especially, are in a snit because they had expected to accomplish great things over last weekend.

Ballplayers and fans are sore, because they have made up their minds that the weather should be suitable for baseball. It won't be suitable for baseball until late in June, but they won't admit it.

That is a point of realism always neglected in weather conversation — that too much is expected of it. The weather is not at fault. It's people who expect it to be what it never has been, who are at fault. Good weather is the exception, not the rule.

The exception is seized upon as a rule. Thereafter, departure from the exception is regarded as something unusual when it is, in fact, merely the usual.

Bad weather in April is usual. April is one of the ornerist months of the year even as far as snowstorms are concerned.

May is not much better. It rarely produces a snowstorm, though it can if it wants to. But it customarily produces cold, miserable rainstorms.

In June, there is supposed to be an improvement. But the unpleasant truth about June is that it is addicted to sudden and frequent thunderstorms which knock out electric service and shatter trees and chimneys.

In July, there is a reasonable expectation of good weather, except that in July it customarily is too dry and hot. This gets steadily worse until the first part of August, when dogs go mad from the heat.

In the latter part of August, it either stays hot or gets cold, and this also is true of September; it either stays hot or gets cold.

October brings the first of the sleet storms. November is a month better left unmentioned in a family newspaper.

December would be too much to bear if it were not for Christmas. January is a time to repent of one's misdeeds and fashion a new life out of the fragments of a misspent old one.

February was made short because if it were longer no one could face it with equanimity. March is a hodge-podge of the worst and best of the seasons, with the worst dominating.

That brings the year back to April.

There is no time of the year when the weather is more than a small, pale reflection of men's large, bright hopes about it. They play picnics and it rains. They schedule holidays and are held indoors by floods and gales.

They never learn to expect the worst and feel good if they get less than the worst. They continually expect the best and feel bad if they get less than the best.

Outside, the sun is shining. Pedestrians who had been huddled in their coats are strolling in the sun. This, they are saying to themselves, is more like it. This is April, the real thing. There will be another snow squall along presently.

One False Move Could Be Fatal

The Power Of The Purse

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

The Constitution clearly vests the power of the purse in Congress. Section 7 of Article 1 states:

"All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills."

Sokolsky

Section 8 of Article 1 states:

"The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises."

Section 9 of Article 1 states:

"No money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law. ."

IN RECENT years, Congress has tended to delegate the initiation of these powers to the Executive, which Congress now resents as the question arises whether it shall place a limitation upon government spending so that taxes may be cut. Great Britain, Canada, France, Italy and Israel expect to cut taxes this year, but every effort by Congress to place a ceiling on federal expenditures encounters resistance on the part of the executive, expecially with regard to H.R. 2 introduced by Representative Frederic R. Coudert, Jr.

Governor Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts said:

"Ten years spent here in Congress taught me one lesson so well, and gave me one warning so imperatively that I shall not forget either:

"The lesson was that unless Congress maintains rigid control over the spending agencies of the federal government we may one day find ourselves facing a national crisis of the first magnitude, and the warning was that Congress has lost such control. I believe that nothing more important can be done at this session than to regain it . . ."

THE POSITION of the administration is that while its target is to balance the budget, it rejects the concept of Congress doing it. Concerning this Representative George Meader said in a committee hearing:

"But here we have a carry-over of 81 billion dollars of carry-over funds which faces us on July 1 of this year, and if we appropriate the Truman budget there will be 72 billion dollars more — in other words, 150 billion dollars, roughly — more than 150 billion dollars—which conceivably could be spent all in fiscal 1954 by the Administration, if they could mechanically get rid of the money that fast."

Mr. Arthur B. Focke, Legal Adviser, Bureau of the Budget, replied:

". . .Expenditures can be controlled by the Bureau of the Budget controlling obligations under the Anti-Deficiency Act. That is, under the 150 (billion) dollars which Mr. Meader points out which would be available for obligation in the fiscal year 1954, if the entire Truman budget were adopted or were appropriated, it can only be obligated as the Bureau of the Budget apportions it to the agencies for obligation.

"By reducing the amount of it that would actually be available to the agencies for obligation, they would to some extent control the expenditures that the agencies could make."

The Chairman (Clare Hoffman) retorted. "But that is no law. That is the exercise of the discretion of those who are in the Bureau of the Budget controlling the amount to be spent, isn't it?"

AND NO matter how Mr. Focke tried to squirm out of it, his testimony stands that while he objected to the legally elected representatives of the people passing a law in accordance with the Constitution limiting government spending, he held that an appointed group of men, in the Bureau of the Budget, operating in administrative secrecy, could at their discretion do precisely what he objected to Congress doing. He actually said,

". . .I was only trying to answer your question as to whether there was any legal limitation, and I said it was a legal limitation in the sense that if, in the discretion of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, he places such a limitation, the agencies would legally be bound by it."

THE CHAIRMAN of the committee, Clare Hoffman of Michigan, finding no logic in this proposition, could not help asking:

"Then what objection do you have to letting us do it? Is it a matter of pride, or what?"

This long hearing only proves one point: too much of the government of the United States is still in the hands of bureaucrats who reject the functions of Congress as they do the clear stipulations of the Constitution.

Birthmark Fears Unscientific

There is nothing so persistent as a superstition. A recent letter says, "Until recently I thought the old wives' tale of marking an unborn child by some action of the mother had gone out with the Dark Ages. However, when our child was born with a red birthmark, I found how wrong I was and how many people honestly believe in this nonsense. Would you please throw some light on this subject?"

Dr. Jordan

There are almost as many superstitions surrounding the appearance of birthmarks as there are about warts. Even today, in this so-called enlightened age, many people believe that birthmarks result from some incident to which the mother is exposed while carrying the child.

Typical is the idea that, when a baby is born with a strawberry mark, the mother showed an uncontrollable desire for these berries during pregnancy. Often, too, the appearance is blamed on some fright of the mother during her pregnancy.

It may be stated categorically that there is no scientific evidence whatever to support any such beliefs.

There are several kinds of birthmarks. Many of them are moles, which may be flat or elevated and dark or almost skin color. Brown ones are called pigmented moles. Some are hairy.

Some birthmarks are made up of numerous tiny blood vessels in the skin. Some are level with the surface of the skin but have a dark purplish color which gives them the common name of port wine marks.

Birthmarks may be made up of blood vessels which are raised above the skin level and are soft and spongy. These are called strawberry marks. This type may occur anywhere but is particularly common around the lips or tongue.

Another common variety of birthmark made up of blood vessels is irregularly shaped and slightly raised. It is called a spider nevus because the blood vessels at the center resemble a spider's body while the smaller ones passing outward resemble the legs of the insect.

What treatment should be used for a birthmark depends on the location, the size and the kind. Some can be removed by local treatment, including surgery, various types of electric cautery, freezing with carbon dioxide snow, X-rays or radium or certain chemical agents.

But it is not always advisable to remove or fade birthmarks even when they are on conspicuous parts of the body, like the face. Expert advice must be obtained. Many, for example, will fade of themselve as the child gets older.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The Chaplin Storm

Charlie Chaplin is giving America the brushoff. This won't matter much. It was his battered derby, floppy shoes and baggy pants that really counted. The America that once went wild over the guy will remember him for his shambling gait, his riotously funny footwork turning sharp corners, his tramp attire, and his cane. There will be no great tear-shedding over Chaplin's decision not to re-enter the country. But we would like to get his hat and shoes back.

Of course, his antics, gestures and screen routines, up to the time he went serious, could lay 'em in the aisles, but those who followed Charlie from the early days of movies will always associate him mostly with the undersized headgear and the oversized footwear.

He was very funny from the Keystone cop era up through "Shoulder Arms" and "The Dictator." Little did his fans think that one day the little tramp comedian would waddle around a street corner, see Uncle Sam as the foe and take off in the other direction with that funny gallop, stopping now and then to adopt the nonchalant pose.

Yet in today's situation you see precisely the pattern of the Chaplin routine in his earliest comedy short. . . he finds himself behind the eight-ball, takes refuge on a park bench, gets the bad news of a pursuit . . . shrugs his shoulders. . . hits himself in the back with his own cane. . . takes a walk down to the water's edge, beholds the villain barring his path. . . and takes it "on the lam" to the tune played by the one-man orchestra in the early chase scenes. But this time nobody is amused.

It's a little depressing. For Chaplin was one of the greatest comedians in screen history. In a world of stolen ideas, thefted routines and imitated scripts, he was 100 per cent original, creating a new character with new methods and new styles.

No clown in history had so many imitators during his first decade on the screen. They gave it up because nobody could come close in the characterization.

He packed 'em into the nicholets and the movie house entrance blared his name, when the music came from a battered piano and when a less sophisticated America laughed easily. His acts were "shorts," but hilarious.

Then came "The Kid," "The Gold Rush," "Shoulder Arms" and other full-length movies in which Chaplin scaled the heights, his derby becoming an institution, his shoes a symbol, his walking stick a box office morale builder.

No performer portrayed pathos, whimsy, distress, alarm or chagrin more wonderfully, doing it often by shoulder shrug, a slight hand movement or the flicker of an eyebrow. He had genius. The more you compare his early work with that of the comedians of screen and stage today the more minor league they seem, copying one another, repeating old gags, depending on a horde of writers for ideas and mainly dependent on sheer brashness, begging the audience for applause and heckling the nonlaughing customers. So much for Chaplin on the screen.

Off the "lot" he was a different type and not admirable. He came into fame and fortune in America and showed no gratitude. He lived and worked for 40 years, enjoying all our freedoms and good will, but refused to become a citizen. He shoved our traditions around. He was contemptuous of the American way. He apparently won't fight for re-entry. Okay here. But we would still like to see his derby, shoes, tramp pants and cane crash the gates.

Council Eyes Zoning Problem

Village Goes On 'Fast' Time Sunday

COLUMBIANA — Zoning for Columbiana, which has been agitated periodically for some years, received an impetus at the meeting of village council Tuesday evening, when it was brought out that the Columbiana Machine Co. plans to build a shop at the southeast corner of N. Pearl and W. Salem Sts., a site it acquired some time ago.

Councilman Charles Fisher voiced strong opposition to the idea and emphasized the need of zoning because a factory there may discourage housing developments planned in that area.

Ralph Heck, builder, recently bought of the Columbiana Realty Co. 12 lots along what would be the east side of West St., which he planned to extend farther north toward W. Salem St. The lots are east of the proposed factory site.

The Columbiana Machine Co. was organized several years ago by several practical machinists, and has been operating in the former Magill garage, south of the Enterprise Co.'s plant on S. Main St.

Council decided to go along with Salem, Youngstown and other neighboring communities on the fast time schedule Sunday, and set officially Thursday, May 7, as spring clean-up day, when street department trucks will haul away refuse if put in containers and placed at the street curb or along an alley in the rear.

A proposal for establishment of a 24-foot street to be known as Parkview Dr. along the east side of the Y. & S. Railway from Herbster St. north to the Earl Newell allotment was to have been heard, but no representative of the promoters appeared. They had inquired as to the requirements for improvements to make it fit for a seal coat and use as a thoroughfare.

Councilman Fisher, chairman of the safety committee recently appointed by Mayor Walter Thomas, called attention to many spots in town where dead weeds should be burned off. Owners of the Stephens lot on S. Main St., near the public square, site of the building that was burned in January, 1951, will be asked to fill up the cellar so that an unsightly fence may be removed.

Chief of Police R. G. Millen reported that a traffic count is in progress to cover a 24-hour period, eight or nine hours of which have been completed.

Joseph Candel plans to build a dwelling on his ground on the south side of E. Friend St., some distance east of the Y. & S. Railway, and wants some way of disposing of the flow in a small water course. The street committee Ray Spiker, Ray Snoke and Herbert Souder, will investigate.

Davis had turned west on the railroad tracks at the Elm St. crossing and was bumping along on one of the unused middle tacks close to the main track for westbound trains, when the gatemen at the Main St. crossing shouted to him as he neared the corssing to get off the tracks A fast westbound train was approaching. Davis jumped out of his car, left the door open and fled. The speeding train tore off the door of the car.

Lieut. J. W. Hoover of the Pennsylvania Railroad police at Canton traced his identity and appeared against him in mayor's court. Davis said he had no recollection of the episode.

Chinese Put On Show For Allied Prisoners

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP)—Marine Pfc. Richard L. Oven of Buffalo, N. Y., said today the Chinese had decorated the roadside from Kaesong to Panmunjom with signs bidding returning Allied prisoners "Farewell, Quick Recovery" and "Bon Voyage."

He said the Communists also had placed signs around the Kaesong camp urging Allied repatriates to tell the people back home that the Chinese want peace.

Another Marine, Pfc. Joseph Britt Jr., Long Beach, Calif., said that for the last couple of days at Kaesong the Chinese "had really put on a show."

"Oh, they put on the dog, man!" he exclaimed.

Britt said the Chinese gave him a fountain pen and two cartons of Chinese cigarettes. Then he emptied his pockets on the table before him displaying the pen, cigarettes, a mirror and other trinkets and said "look at some of the trash they gave us."

Kills Self By Exploding Firecracker In Mouth

ASHBY, Mass. (AP)—Medical Examiner Edward T. Lilly ruled last night that Clifford C. Foote, local cemetery commissioner, took his own life earlier in the day by exploding a large firecracker in his mouth.

Police said Foote had been despondent since he suffered the loss of an arm recently in a Georgia automobile accident while en route home from a Florida vacation.

He was released from a Georgia hospital last Sunday.

South Korean Sergeant Tells Of Brutality Of Red Captors

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP)—A South Korean sergeant who lost all 10 fingers told a shocking story today of torture in Korean Communist prison camps.

M. Sgt. Kim Ka Sung, 25, was among the sick and wounded Allied prisoners exchanged this week at Panmunjom. He was captured by the North Koreans in 1950 while serving with the Republic of Korea Capitol Division.

He said he was taken by three Reds to a lonely village, handed a shovel and ordered to dig his own grave. But he said he clubbed his captors while they were lighting cigarettes, seized a burp gun and killed them.

He was recaptured while wandering on a mountain bectuse...

"I was very tired and fell asleep."

Kim said he was taken to the Communist prison at Hoenyung in December, 1950, and tortured for two weeks.

She said the Communists forced him to drink water in excessive amounts and poured hot pepper powder into his nose and mouth.

He was suspended from the prison ceiling with his hands and legs tied behind him, he said.

The Reds also beat him with wire, rope and other things, he said.

He refused to give his captors his rank and unit.

"I was the only prisoner to be tortured among the 58 South Korean prisoners held in the camp at Hoenyung," he said.

He said that after his arms had been bound for a long time, the circulation was bad and doctors told him his fingers would have to be amputated.

"I doubted that," he said, "but there wasn't much else I could do."

He said the fingers on his right hand were amputated by a saw. He was not given anything to dull the pain.

Three days later, they cut off the fingers of his left hand with a knife. He was given no treatment, he said, and the only cure was putting his butchered hands out of the window so the sun would heal them.

Bird Collector Willed $300 To Care For Cats

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Memphis woman's bequest of $300 to care for stray cats left a Kansas City youth in a dilemma today.

He's strictly out of the cat business.

When Miss Ella C. Branum lived here she noticed Robert E. Brice's interest in animals. He worked in a pet shop and often gave Miss Branum advice on how to care for hers.

When Miss Branum died in Memphis recently she left bequests to humane organizations and $300 to Brice, now a high school senior.

Bobby's dilemma, in his own words:

"My hobby is collecting birds. Right now I have about 100 parakeets. I don't think I could have cats around my home."

However, Bobby said he'd use the money to care for stray cats "somehow."

Alliance Woman Describes Recent Sojourn In Moscow

Editors: This is the first of three stories describing the recent visit to Moscow by Mrs. Martha M. Hoiles, daughter-in-law of Mrs. F. A. Hoiles, publisher of the Alliance Review. Mrs. Martha Hoiles, widow of Arthur Hoiles, former managing editor of the Review, is writing a series of stories for the Review. At present, she is visiting a daughter in Germany.

ALLIANCE, O. (AP)—The role of women in the big Moscow industrial plants was one of the things that "fascinated" an Ohio woman who made the recent visit to Soviet Russia with a group of American newspaper and radio people.

Mrs. Martha M. Hoiles, daughter-in-law of the publisher of the Alliance Review, Mrs. F. A. Hoiles, is writing a series of articles for the newspaper. A widow of Arthur Hoiles, former managing editor of the Review, Mrs. Hoiles at present is visiting a daughter in Germany.

Describing the site of the Stalin Auto Works, which she was told employes an estimated 40,000 workers, Mrs. Hoiles said:

"After our welcome we started our tour of this immense plant, through the fumes and smoke of the 'blacksmith shop' where the iron pigs are melted into molten liquid ready to be poured into the moulds, and on into the foundry where I stood fascinated by a woman pouring large quantities of this fiery substance as casually as though she were pouring the batter of a cake into a pan. . . .

"The Soviet type of streamlined production seems to be one thing in common in all the factories that we have visited. The cars roll off the assembly line with the clock-like motion that the chocolate bars wrapped in bright paper covers, drop into packing boxes at the Red October Candy Factory.

"On our visit to Pravda, the Soviet Union's biggest newspaper, that same production was evident. The day's copies of the paper which has a daily circulation of 3½ million roll off the press in course of about three and one-half hours. Not all the copies of the day's issue are printed in Moscow. Mats are flown to the country's 12 principal cities, from Kieve in European USSR, across the whole of European Eurasia in Khabarovsk in Soviet Far Eastern Siberia.

"In each of these factories, I found a high percentage of women workers are Stakhanovites who not only have met the quota set up by the factory, but have exceeded it. As an example, a linotype operator at Pravda has a record of 18 galleys for an eight-hour shift. The Pravda average for a linotype operator is 70,000 letters per eight hour shift, yet this Stakhanovite linotype operator has set a record of 120,000 letters during her eight hour day.

"The women's efficiency is a contributing factor to bringing the morning copy of Pravda out timely to its millions of readers throughout the Soviet Union.

Trainmen To Strike Against Railroads

CLEVELAND (AP)— The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen has set 6 a. m. EST Saturday for a strike against the Nickel Plate Road and its leased Wheeling & Lake Erie division.

But there is a chance the National (Railway) Mediation Board will intervene before then to delay the walkout which would idle 16,000 employes of the carrier's 2,200 miles of trackage in Ohio, New York, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois.

Only four weeks ago the BRT set a strike deadline for its 2,300 members employed by Nickel Plate, but eight hours before the deadline postponed the walkout at the request of the board.

Negotiations since the delay of the March 28 strike call "didn't get any place," a brotherhood spokesman here said, and were broken off Tuesday.

At issue are a number of grievances, time claims and working rules changes — questions which have been argued since last July and which the mediation board says have now been reduced to two main points of dispute.

Akron Bus Strike Enters 23rd Day

AKRON, O. (AP)—This is the 23rd day of Akron's bus strike, and no one knows when it will end.

Mayor Charles E. Slusser had asked the Akron Transportation Co. whether it would give up its franchise, but the firm today didn't give a direct reply.

Instead, acting General Manager William H. Muldoon asked Slusser some questions about what Akron would do if ATC would agree to a franchise cancellation.

Slusser replied:

1. Municipal ownership would not be attemped, that another bus company would be invited to come in.

2. ATC and this other firm would have to work out the transfer of the property.

3. ATC would have time to remove trolley wire, if necessary.

Discussion Is Planned On Hospital Operation

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Welfare department officials will meet in Lima Friday to discuss operation of a new 1½ million dollar psychopathic ward at the Lima State Hospital.

Judge John H. Lamneck, welfare director, said he would confer with Warden Ralph W. Alvis of Ohio Penitentiary; Dr. Lowell Dillon, commissioner of mental hygene; Arthur L. Glattke, commissioner of correction, and Dr. R. E. Bushong, superintendent of the Lima institution.

Lamneck said the group will discuss opening of the 250-bed ward, the number of transfers and how they will be made to Lima from other state penal units. He indicated there would be no mass transfer.

Sanity Tests Requested In Murder Case

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Prosecution and defense attorneys have asked for a third series of sanity tests on a 19-year-old Ada, O., airman on trial for the murder of a New Orleans liquor store proprietor.

Robert K. Stober, stationed at Alexandria, La., Air Force Base, has admitted shooting George Freman, 53, when Freman reached for a gun during a holdup last October, police said.

A state-appointed commission examined Stober and found him sane. His attorneys ran tests on him with a brain-wave machine and said the results indicated "positive findings indicating psychomotor epilepsy."

The state lunacy commission appointed by Judge Frank T. Echezebal found Stober may "have been somewhat under the influence of alcohol but not under any influence of a mental disturbance" at the time of the shooting.

Judge Echezebal said Wednesday he would take the request for further tests under advisement. The case has been continued.

Safe Driving Record Is Set

Newspaper Vehicles Have Few Mishaps

NEW YORK (AP) — An annual American newspaper vehicle safe driving campaign was reported today to have cut accidents to a new low point—only 2.05 accidents per 10,000 vehicle miles last year.

It was the best record yet in the 12-year history of the campaign, sponsored annually by the American Newspaper Publishers Association and the International Circulation Managers Association.

Twenty - one newspapers were cited for first, second and third-place awards in various classifications. First place winners received plaques: others got scrolls. Winners included:

Contract motor carrier division.

Third—Columbus, O. Dispatch, 2,570,857 miles with seven accidents, a rate of .27 per 10,000 miles.

Jet Plane Plant Dispute Is Aired

CLEVELAND —Councilmen of Cuyahoga Heights and the Aluminum Co. of America have effected a truce of at least a month in their dispute over a building permit for a 40 million dollar Air Force plant to make jet plane parts.

Wednesday night the councilmen approved a permit for construction of a 485-car parking lot near Alcoa's Harvard Ave., plant. The lot, which will serve also the proposed Air Force plant, originally was tied with the tax-exempted Air Force project, but Alcoa agreed to separate the two.

The village government has not altered its position that it expects compensation for services such as police and fire protection, sewer system rental, etc. But it did abandon an earlier suggestion that Alcoa pay compensation to the village in lieu of taxes on the government owned plant Alcoa will operate.

Council also approved a permit for Alcoa to expand its present facilities by installing a $3,200,000 ingot molding and processing addition. This will supply needs of the proposed defense plant, but will not be tax-exempt.

Agreement also was reached to allow Alcoa to build work shanties and level ground for the big Air Force plant, but council ordered that no actual foundation work be started without the building permit.

Settlement Reached In Auto Mishap Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—Lawyers announced today a settlement had been reached on the $75,000 personal injury claim of Miss Theda Boyd, 32, of Kittanning, Pa. The amount was not disclosed.

Miss Boyd was injured in a car driven by her boss, Harry B. Culley of Pittsburgh, March 31, 1949. She is senior supervising accountant in his accounting firm, Harry B. Culley & Co.

During the five-day trial in Federal Court, it was testified the two were returning from Tiffin, O., where they audited a firm's books, and ran into the rear of a tractor-trailer truck near Greenwich, O.

The truck belonged to Anchor Motor Freight, Inc. of Flint, Mich.

No Sign Of Break Seen In Auto Workers Strike

CINCINNATI (AP) — There wasn't a sign of a break today in the 41-day-old strike of 4,500 CIO Automobile Workers and 1,100 AFL Machinists at the jet engine plant of the General Electric Co.

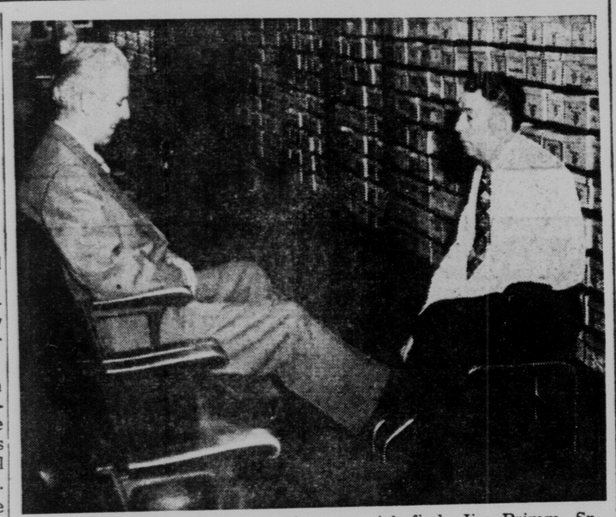

That was the situation despite a third effort Wednesday by federal mediators to bring the company and the automobile workers into agreement on the wage dispute.

Their meeting lasted only about a half hour and when it was over James McNamara, one of the mediators, said, "nothing happened, absolutely nothing of importance."

Ohio State U. Gets TV Station Permit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio State University has been granted a permit for an educational television station by the Federal Communications Commission on Channel 34.

President Howard L. Bevis said the new station will cost between $250,000 and $500,000 and will have a broadcast range up to 37 miles. He said it will go on the air late this year. The permit is the 15th authorizzed by the FCC for educational television.

South Korean WAC Freed By Communists

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP) —A South Korean WAC was among the 50 South Korean sick and wounded prisoners freed today by the Communists—the first woman reported involved in the POW exchange.

She said she was captured in 1951 while serving with the Republic of Korea 8th Infantry Division. She added that two other members of the ROK Women's Army Corps were captured at the same time and still are in prison camps.

SERVICE-UR-SELF

SELF-SERVICE, a customer convenience found in such places as restaurants and supermarkets, now invades the neighborhood garage where the driver checks his own record and makes his selection of what he wants done. Devised by the Dobie company of Cleveland, the system saves time for customer and service manager. Customer can examine service record of his car dating back to first time anything was done. A complete price list is posted so that, when motorist picks up his car, he can easily check his bill. Work is recommended for the automobile in accordance with regulations from factory.

Customer drives in and leaves her car for the usual repairs.

She gets "shopping list" for possible service needs for car.

"IT'S GOOD for you" seems to be what this young cat fancier is trying to tell a white Persian at a cat exposition held in Paris. Cat apparently wants to drink the milk from a saucer.

Checking her record, she sees needs recommended by factory.

New York Giants Whip Pirates, 4-2, In Night Game

Yankees Defeat Boston, 6-2; Lead American League Clubs

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sportswriter

Leo Durocher is fast becoming a firm believer in the theory that every cloud has a silver lining. And Bobby Hofman is one of the reasons.

The New York Giants' manager was forced to dig deep into his infield reserves when Davey Williams, his preferred choice for second base, reinjured his lame back Tuesday night. First-string catcher Wes Westrum also was hurt and the club was in last place.

Leo switched Daryl Spencer, a shortstop by trade, from third base, where he had been performing, to second, and settled for Hofman, a utility man used so infrequently that his name doesn't appear in many baseball books, at third, Sal Yvars did the catching.

Hofman, batting leadoff against the Pirates at Pittsburgh last night, made Durocher look good in the first inning. He opened with a double and scored. In the third inning he hit a home run for the Giants' second tally. He singled in the fifth and then completed a perfect night with his second home run, this time with pitcher Jim Hearn on base, for the last two New York runs in the eighth as New York whipped the pirates, 4-2.

Hofman has been in the Giants' organization for 10 years since he played American Legion baseball in St. Louis on the same team as Yogi Berra. He saw action last year in only 32 games and his total home run production was exactly equal to his total of last night —two.

The victory jumped the Giants from last to fifth place, enough to make Durocher happy even though he was tossed out of the game for arguing in the ninth inning. Bill Stewart, working at second base, drew the honor of being the first umpire this year to kick Leo out of a game.

First place in the National League also changed hands as the Philadelphia Phillies made it two in a row over Brooklyn, this time by a 5-4 margin, and St. Louis defeated Cincinnati, 8-3, in two other night games. The Phils and Cardinals now share the lead with Brooklyn half a game behind. Milwaukee swamped Chicago, 15-6, in the only National League day game.

The New York Yankees took over sole possession of first place in the American League by whipping Boston, 6-2, while the St. Louis Browns were idle. A five-run ninth-inning rally fell short for Detroit as the Tigers bowed to Chicago, 9-7, and Philadelphia beat Washington, 7-4, in a night affair. Cleveland, along with the Browns, wasn't scheduled.

Billy Loes, who pitched 39 innings—38 of them scoreless—for Brooklyn against Philadelphia last year, couldn't fool the Phillies last night. They got to him for all of their five runs before he departed in the fourth. Karl Drews struck out seven in winning his first game.

The Cardinals battered Cincinnati pitching for 12 hits, half of them for extra bases, to put down the Redlegs at St. Louis. Vinegar Bend Mizell walked six and committed two errors, but he struck out seven and lasted until two were out in the ninth before needing help from Al Brazle.

The Braves bashed everything in sight for 17 safe blows and 34 bases at Chicago. Third baseman Ed Mathews led the raid with two homers and a double, good for six runs.

Boston's kiddie crop, youngest team in the majors, bowed to old age at Yankee Stadium. Johnny Mize, 40, punched a pinch hit single with the bases loaded and the score tied in the eighth inning to put the Yankees on the winning trail. Vic Raschi picked up his first victory of the season.

Harry Byrd shut out Washington until there were two down in the ninth, then had to holler for help as the Senators rallied for four runs off Philadelphia.

Vern Stephens, Sherman Lollar and Sam Mele homered for the White Sox off Milt Jordan, Detroit rookie starting his first major league game, as the Tigers lost their fifth in a row and their seventh in eight games.

WHO'S ON FIRST? — Major league clubs look to first base for extra thump. Ted Kluszewski, left, hits home runs and knocks in runs for the Redlegs. Whitey Lockman, center, is off with a bang for the Giants. Walt Dropo bats clean-up for the Tigers.

Indians Prepare For Night Game

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unscheduled for the second straight day, the Cleveland Indians prepared today for their first night game of the year, opener of a four-game series with Detroit here Friday.

Mike Garcia will hurl for the Tribe.

To keep from getting rusty, the Indians played an intrasquad game at the stadium Wednesday afternoon. Fans were admitted free, and about 500 adults and several thousand kids took advantage of the precedent-setting show.

They got to see only an hour and 37 minutes of baseball in which the Scrubs edged the Varsity 4-3. The game went the full nine innings, but the pitchers worked faster than in regular league games which seldom finish in under two hours.

66 Ohio High Schools To Compete In Relays

DELAWARE, O. (AP) — Sixty-six Ohio high schools will compete for championships in two classes in Saturday's Ohio Wesleyan Relays here.

Figured to top the 32-team Class A division are Cleveland East Tech and Springfield. Cleveland East Tech's defending champions will be seeking to increase their all-time lead. Since the annual meet started 22 years ago, the Cleveland team has won six championships, Springfield five.

Class B defending champion Oberlin expects its toughest competition from Salem Oak Harbor, perennially a strong contender.

Twelve events are scheduled in each division. Preliminary running events and Class B field events will be at 9:30 a. m. Running events and Class A field finals are scheduled for 1:30 p. m.

Carter Ends Training For Bout With Collins

BOSTON (AP)—Apparently confident about making the 135-pounds limit, lightweight champion Jimmy Carter today planned to wind up his preparations for his 15-round title defense against Boston's Tommy Collins by taking "a long walk."

Carter has completed his serious work for Friday night's 15-round bout which will draw $170,000 worth of cash cutsomers into the Boston Garden.

Up in rural Action, challenger Collins, who expects to weigh in around 133, planned one more stiff workout.

Boudreau Sees Pennant For Boston In '55

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Time was when the Boston Red Sox used to pack 'em in at Yankee Stadium. Every night appearance created a ticket jam and a threat to the attendance record. Folks used to arrange their vacations to boo Ted Williams.

All that ended one day, about a year ago, when Williams went back into the Marines. With Ted flying a jet in Korea, the Sox embarked on a youth program.

Johnny Pesky went to Detroit with Walt Dropo. Vern Stephens finished the season but was traded to Chicago in the winter. Even with Dom DiMaggio obviously nearing the end of the trail, Lou Boudreau wasn't overly concerned. The manager's faith was in his kids.

Nobody broke down any turnstiles getting into the stadium yesterday when the Red Sox came to town for the first time. The paid attendance was a cold 7,193. The ages of the starters, not counting the pitcher, averaged less than 24.

But down in the visitors' dugout, before the game, Boudreau was talking pennant—a 1955 pennant. That's when he thinks the crop will be ripe.

Boudreau knows some of the kids may not be ready for the big league. But he wants to find out what they will do. His "kids' are outfielders Gene Stephens, 20; Tom Umphlett, 21; Jim Piersall, 23; and shortstop Milt Bolling, 24. "veterans' because they were with him all or most of last year.

"Maybe the kids should be in triple A," he said. "Any one of these kids could have a hell of a year in triple A. But when it was all over Joe (General Manager Joe Cronin) and I still wouldn't know how they'd go in the majors.

"We figure if they're up here, they get to know the parks, get used to playing before crowds and face major league pitching. A year in the majors is more valuable to them than a year in the minors.'

Wrestling Matches Set For Alliance Armory

Tickets are now on sale at Fisher's News Agency for the wrestling card at the Alliance Armory April 29 featuring a match between Ed "Daffy" Francis, junior world's champion, and Frank Julian.

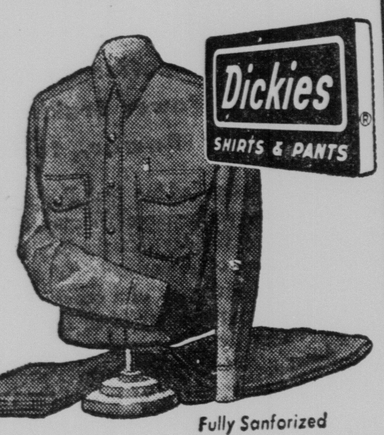

Also on the card is a match between Don Lewin and Al Tucker, and girl wrestlers, Lilly Bitter and Violet Viann will meet.

First match begins at 8:30 p.m.

Rookie shortstop Harvey Kuenn of the Detroit Tigers attends the University of Wisconsin during the off-season.

15 Teams Set For 1953 Junior Baseball Season

Fifteen junior baseball teams are set for the 1953 season in Salem with practice already underway. Six teams are entered in the Little League Major League, four in the Minor League, four in the Pony League and the American Legion junior baseball team is again ready for action

The '53 season will be the second year of junior baseball in Salem, sponsored by the American Legion.

Increased interest this year is shown by a boost in the number of teams from 11 which participated last year.

Boys aged 8-12 are eligible for Little League, 13-15 for Pony League and 15-17 for Junior Legion.

The teams are sponsored by local merchants, manufacturers, unions, and service organizations.

THE MONEY donated by the sponsors goes into the league treasury and all equipment is purchased by league officers. The needed equipment includes uniforms, insurance, bases, balls, bats, catchers' outfits, safety helmets, and pay for umpires and scorekeepers.

A tag day is held once a year by the league to help meet the sport's expenses.

The shortage of playing fields has slowed progress by the league. All games this season will be played at the Centennial Park.

The league is planning to fix up the field next to the stadium for practice fields as well as one behind Hope Cemetery. The league hopes to purchase land for a Little League park in the near future.

The league operates under its own constitution and by-laws and is franchised by the National Headquarters of Little League and the Pony League. Officials point out that the project is to teach our youth good citizenship, sportsmanship, leadership, and fair play as well as baseball.

Salem Track Squad To Meet Rayen In Youngstown Friday

BY SANDY HANSELL

Coach Frank J. Tarr's 1953 track squad, extermely hard-hit by the inclement weather conditions, will try to get back into action tomorrow afternoon when it travels to Youngstown Rayen for the only out-of-town trip the squad will make this year.

Staging a full-scale practice only once last week, in addition to two meets-one of which was run off in a freezing rain—the team was idle again Monday because of the snow, and was limited to loosening-up drills Tuesday afternoon due to the cold.

Yesterday afternoon at Reilly Stadium, Coach Tarr and his assistant, Karl Zellers, directed the first complete practice session in over a week.

The team still is not quite in peak form, due to the lack of adequate workouts. However, if the weather continues to give the cindermen a break, they should be in top-notch shape for the County meet which will be held in two weeks.

Tomorrow's affair marks the midway spot in the first part of the season. There are only three meets left until the County and District meets, the most important events of the year.

Girard and Boardman will invade Salem Monday for a triangular meet, while Niles will be here one week from tomorrow, May 1st.

After Ravenna battles the locals on Tuesday, May 5th, the County and District meets follow on successive Fridays.

Tarr will take a squad of 27 boys to Rayen tomorrow to tangle with the Orange and Black. Tarr doesn't have too much advance information on the Tigers, but expects them to be rough.

In rehashing last week's fiasco with Ursuline, when the Irish swamped the Quakers, 95½ to 22½, Tarr commented that undoubtedly Ursuline would have to be reckoned with before the winner of the District meet is determined. The powerful visitors humiliated Salem by taking first place in every event, displaying a great amount of well-balanced strength.

Another powerhouse which should prove hard to beat in both the County and the District meets, is rugged East Palestine, sparked by versatile Tony Conkle. Last year, the Bulldogs, paced by Conkle's four first places, swept to the County Championship and also won the District crown when Conkle registered three firsts and a third.

Conkle later became the State shot put champion.

Salem Polo Team To Open '53 Season

The Salem polo team, a member of the Penn-Ohio League, will open its 1953 season with two games on the Salem field against Harbor Hills Columbus on Decoration day.

Schedule for the Penn-Ohio League polo teams was arranged recently when representatives from the six teams met in Youngstown.

Games have been scheduled as tournament play in June and July, with the teams holding the highest average of wins at the end of the period to travel to Detroit, there to compete with the winner of the Michigan teams in the Ivory Bowl.

The Penn-Ohio League teams are Salem, Youngstown, Harbor Hills Columbus, Columbus Forums, Cleveland and Darlington. Jack Ivory, who just returned from a series of games in Colombia, South America, represented the Michigan teams at the meeting.

Last year the Salem team finished strong with seven wins in its last eight games and the players, Willy Smith, Jim Pidgeon, Tony Sheen and Roy Bates feel they have a good chance to cop the June and July 1953 tournament win.

Cardinals Beat Redlegs, 8-3

Cincinnatians Below .500 Percentage Mark

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs are below that .500 percentage mark in the National League again.

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell of the St. Louis Cardinals took care of that Wednesday night as he held the Cincinnatians to seven hits while his mates thumped Bud Podbielan and Barney Martin for an 8-3 victory.

It gave the Cards an even break in the two-game series.

The Redlegs now will move on to Chicago where Herman Wehmeier is slated to make his first pitching start of the season Friday.

Mizell had the Redlegs under control virtually all of the way until the ninth when he got into trouble and Alpha Brazle had to rush in to get Jim Greengrass for the final out when Cincinnati had one run in and the bases loaded.

The Cards started picking on Podbielan in the third inning with two runs on doubles by Solly Hemus and Red Schoendienst and a single by Steve Bilko.

About the only thing Manager Rogers Hornsby liked about the game was the temperature. It was around the 80 mark and after the days and days of cold weather that change was good.

Hornsby indicated he plans to leave rookie Johnny Temple at second base, at least for a while, even though Rocky Bridges has recovered from an injury. Temple has had six hits in 18 times at bat and has fielded well so the Cincinnati boss apparently can see no reason for making a change.

ADHERE TO STANDARD TIME

NEW YORK (AP)—Daylight saving time begins this week end for millions of Americans, but the majority of the states still adhere to standard time.

About a quarter of the states are for that extra hour of sunlight. These are concentrated in the Northeast, with a couple in the Far West.

MOTOR MAN — Wes Santee of Kansas, who has turned in a 4:08.3 mile and 1:53.6 half-mile this year, is the best bet among college runners to set new middle distance records.

Rookie pitcher Miguel (Mike) Fornieles of the Chicago White Sox hails from Havana, Cuba. He made major league hurling debut last Sept. 2 by pitching a one-hitter against the Philadelphia Athletics. The score was 5-0.

UMPIRE

By BEANS REARDON
24 Years in National League

Question: The batter lines the ball back to the pitcher. The ball hits the rubber and bounces straight back over the stands. The batter circles the bases. The team in the field argues that the batter should be called back, claiming the ball is foul. The club at bat says it's a home run as the ball hit inside fair ground. What would be your decision?—Bob Sherman.

Answer: This automatically is a two-base hit for the same reason that a fair ball bouncing into the stands entitles the batter to a double.

Q. Who was the first President of the United States to throw out the first baseball of the big league season?—Joe Davidson.

A. William Howard Taft, in 1910

Q. Has there ever been a left-handed catcher in the major leagues?—Harold Johnson.

A. Yes, Joe Wall, with the 1902 Dodgers.

Q. Has there ever been a case of a big leaguer tripling into a triple play—Stan Collins.

A. Not that can be recalled, but Babe Herman, in 1926, doubled into a double play in Brooklyn, the play driving in the winning run against the Braves!

The most games ever won by a Cleveland Indian pitcher was 31 by Jim Bagby in 1920.

20 Golfers Tee Off In Champions Event

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Taking aim at the top target of $10,000 in a $35,000 purse, 20 of the nation's leading golfers tee off today in the first round of the first annual Tournament of Champions.

Leading threats to capture the big prize are Lloyd Mangrum, Samuel Jackson Snead and Cary Middlecoff.

Not present for the rich event is Ben Hogan, who came in for bitter criticism by other pros. They said he declined to play when his demand for $5,000 appearance money was refused.

Mangrum said he and other top-notchers are skipping the $15,000 Pan-American tournament in Mexico City next week because Hogan is getting $5,000 to appear, whereas others are guaranteed nothing.

Another subject of discussion is Snead's aching left hand. Sam broke a bone in the hand in 1951 and has kept it adorned in tape most of the time since. In his first practice Wednesday he carded a 37-32—69, which included an out of bounds six for the par four 18th.

Allied Defense Buildup Slowed By Red Series Of Peace Moves

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mild man relaxes when a belligerent man stops picking on him for the same reason being hit on the head with a hammer feels so good when it stops.

This country and its allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization must decide soon whether, like the mild man, they will relax their defense plans now that the Russians are talking peace.

Sincere or not, the Kremlin's sudden mildness started about mid-March, which was just far enough ahead of some important Western decisions to have a maximum softening effect, if the West could be softened:

1. The NATO Council of Ministers, representing 14 countries, was to hold its 11th meeting in its four year history to lay plans for further military buildup in case of Russian attack. The meeting began in Paris today.

2. The Republicans are anxious to keep their campaign promise to cut government spending. The biggest cuts are expected in money for defense and foreign aid.

3. The French haven't yet approved the plan to give Western Europe one army that would include Germans. The French are unhappy and doubtful about the prospect of rearming any Germans, even Germans in the same army with the French.

The NATO Council is made up of the foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 14 members countries. The U. S. sent Secretaries Dulles (state), Wilson (defense), and Humphrey (Treasury) to the Paris meeting.

NATO's secretary general, Lord Ismay, was asked by reporters last night if the Russian tactics had induced NATO to slacken defense preparations. He gave an emphatic "no."

The results of the three-day council meeting may show whether Ismay was a prophet. The talk of the ministers may be very sturdy. But it's the decisions they reach that will tell the tale.

When the council met 14 months ago in Lisbon it set a defense goal for 1952, 1953 and 1954. The 1952 goal has largely been met. Later, but before the Russian peace moves started, the Western Allies questioned whether they had overreached themselves for 1953.

Originally the defense buildup was planned to be intense and quick. Now Dulles has said the U. S. would ask its allies to stretch out the program.

The ministers will decide whether they should go slower because (A) of their own financial condition or (B) the Russians suddenly seem less dangerous.

Meanwhile, it was learned here this week the Eisenhower administration hoped to cut perhaps two billion dollars off the $7,600,000,000 President Truman asked Congress to approve for foreign aid in the year starting July 1.

Some Eisenhower planners think this might be done safely because there is a backlog of about 10 billions for weapons, appropriated under Truman but not yet spent or obligated.

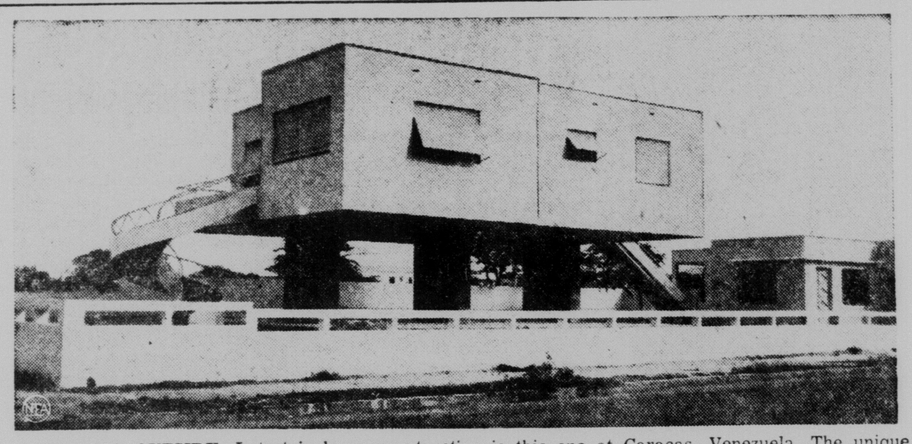

At the same time the administration is looking for ways to reduce military spending on this country's own armed forces. President Eisenhower said he himself will make the final decision on how much the cut should be.

What he decides might mean the difference between victory and defeat if the Russians once more reversed themselves and attacked here or elsewhere.

His advisers may not have been influenced in the cuts they're trying to make by the emergence of a Russian which talks of wanting peace, not war. But if the Russians had been acting tougher there probably would be no cuts.

ENGINEER DIES IN CAB

YOUNGSTOWN, O. (AP) — Baltimore & Ohio engineer Robert Drumheller, 60, of New Castle, Pa., collapsed and died in his cab Wednesday at nearby Struthers. The engine was stopped in the yards at the time. County Coroner David A. Belinky said death was due to a heart attack.

DAR Women Elect Slate Of Officers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gertrude S. Carraway, of New Bern, N. C., and her full slate of officers were nominated without opposition today to head the Daughters of the American Revolution for the next three years.

Miss Carraway, former city editor of the Sun-Journal in New Bern, will succeed Mrs. James B. Patton of Columbus, O., after the election tonight.

The other prospective officers nominated unanimously by the 62nd congress of the DAR included Mrs. Ralph Oral Whitaker of London, O., a vice president general.

RED SOLDIER DIES

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet newspapers today reported the death of artillery Maj. Gen. Sergei Spiridonovich Kobets, 50. They described him as a "big worker in the central apparatus of the naval forces."

PAPER UNCHIVALROUS

ROME (AP)—Clare Boothe Luce received straight-forward greetings from most of Rome's morning newspapers today but the Communist L'Unita—as expected—was something less than chivalrous.

Commenting on the arrival yesterday of the new U. S. ambassador, L'Unita called her an "elderly lady" and said she spoke with a "Brooklyn accent."

Beware Of Red Hair, Dallas Dentist Warns

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Beware of red hair, a Dallas dentist warns his colleagues.

Dr. Phillip E. Williams told a State Dental Association meeting yesterday that red-haired patients are the most difficult, because:

"Red heads, male or female, always feel pain, whether it is present or not. They have emotional complications others don't have. Neither blondes nor brunettes present the same problem."

Mullins To Hold 8th Annual Scholarship Tests May 9

The eighth annual competition for Mullins Manufacturing Corporation's $1,000 scholarships at the University of Cincinnati will be held Saturday, May 9.

TIES MIG RECORD — Col. Royal N. Baker, 34, of McKinney, Tex., notched his 11th MIG of the Korean war to tie Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Tex., as leading MIG killer. Davis is missing in action. In addition to 11 MIGs, Baker has destroyed one propeller-driven fighter, probably destroyed another MIG and damaged one.

Six scholarships, four in engineering and two in business administration, will be granted. Those eligible to compete are high school seniors in Columbiana and Trumbull counties, in which Mullins operates plants, and seniors of Greenford, Goshen and Sebring high schools in Mahoning County.

The scholarships, each worth $1,000, are evenly divided between winners in the two areas.

The preliminary examinations, which are provided by the University, are scheduled for 10 a.m. in Warren G. Harding High School and Salem High School, under Mullins' supervision. Winners enter the University in September.

Courses at the University are on the cooperative basis. During the first year men attend a full two terms. For the next four years they alternate between eight week study periods at school and eight week work periods in Mullins' plants. Degrees are granted at the end of the five-year course.

Bill To Admit Ohio In Union Drawn Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Interior Committee will hold a hearing next Monday on a bill to admit Ohio into the Union formally, Rep. Bender (R-Ohio) said today.

Bender is author of the proposed legislation that he said would correct "uncertainty" and establish once and for all that Ohio is a member of the union.

Earlier this year — which is Ohio's 150th as a state — researchers stumbled on the fact that Congress in 1803 somehow neglected to complete the admission process.

The state's constitution was approved. So were its boundaries. But the final step — a resolution formally admitting Ohio as the 17th state of the union — never was taken.

Bender's resolution would correct that 150-year-old lapse. It would be retroactive to March, 1803, and thus would preserve Ohio's seniority standing.

Cost Of Living Rises Slightly In Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that living costs edged up fractionally between mid-February and mid - March. This reversed a three-month downward trend.

The bureau of Labor Statistics said its consumers price index rose two-tenths of one per cent over the month. This brought the index to 113.6.

The index uses average prices of 1947-49 as a base of 100.

The living cost level is presently only about one-half of one per cent off the record established last November when the index was 114.3.

Mansfield Mayor Named Navy Dept. Aide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mayor Thomas B. Wright of Mansfield, O. was named today as civilian aide to Secretary of the Navy Robert B. Anderson.

Wright is to assume his new duties "as soon as he is able to turn over his municipal responsibilities," probably early next month, the Navy said.

He was elected Mayor of Mansfield four years ago, at the age of 29. Wright became the youngest full-time municipal official in Ohio and the youngest mayor in Mansfield's history.

He is a Naval reserve officer and has five years service in World War II to his credit.

Farley Says Politics Still Noblest Career

NEW YORK (AP)—Politics, says James A. Farley, is "still the noblest of careers."

"It is no place for the timid man," adds the former Democratic national chairman, "and no place for the corrupt and dishonest."

Farley called for special training of young men "to carry the torch of leadership" in a speech last night at a dinner of the Fordham College sophomore class.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

It is only a short drive from where we were meeting to the quiet Atlantic Coast town of Harvey Cedars, N. J., which has unknowingly become the home of one of the toughest, most disciplined men ever to be named in Congressional testimony as a successful Soviet spymaster.

So we rode out along the peninsula, past the accused spy's home, right on to the Barnegat Light, six miles away — from which one could see only white caps, or incoming ships, or submarines, or whatever one watches for on a rocky ledge jutting into open water. This then is the home of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, about whom we shouted unheeded warnings for so many years.

THIS THEN is the reward for Silvermaster, a man who even today refuses to deny that Soviet agents have visited him along this lonely coast — peaceful days, freedom, and even a going business.

Small wonder there is bitterness against such as Gregory Silvermaster among the group conferring only 40 miles away in Atlantic City.

This group, the Jewish Labor Committee (of AFL and CIO members), has before it ghastly evidence that Gregory Silvermaster's spiritual fatherland, the Soviet Union, is still virulently anti-Semitic, still running Nazi-like Jewish slave camps, still the old USSR despite the death of the master of all spy rings, Joe Stalin.

In the Jewish Labor Committee's reports, drawn from information sent through from far behind the Iron Curtain, are grizzly facts the entire Western world should ponder as it seeks to understand the "new" Malenkov-Molotov-Beria Russia.

THE WORLD was startled when Moscow's Praesidium suddenly released the six famous Jewish doctors. But in the Labor Committee reports there is the evidence that this was merely a change of tactic, not a change of heart. For the committee reveals that there are at least 33 other prominent Jewish physicians still in jail — or worse.

These include Doctors Lurie, Braun, Kahan, Levkovsky, Eisenberg, Ehrlichman and 20 others of the Kiev hospitals.

In Minsk, a long list of woman doctors were jailed last January and are now dead or in special concentration camps. Among them are Doctors Anna Epstein, Cysha Nissnewich, Regina Block, Kantorwich, Slabodskava, Kabasch and Dora Papierno.

The Jewish Labor Committee reports to its leaders, some of whom have just come in from European survey trips, that:

". . . As many as 600,000 Jews are in slave-labor camps (right now) in the Soviet Union. In other words, one third of the entire Jewish population is behind bars. . . .

"The most sensational piece of information is about the conversion of Biro-Bidjan, the 'Jewish autonomous republic' into a huge concentration camp.

"There seems to be a concerted plan to consign Jewish prisoners to the camps in Biro-Bidjan. It is difficult to estimate the exact number of camps in Biro-Bidjan, but suffice it to say that in one camp on the shores of Lake Biro, there are five to six sections with 200 to 300 Jewish slaves in each. ."

AND THERE are other prisons. "The old barracks of former Nazi concentration camps are being prepared for re-use," says the committee. The Communists, like their old comrades of the swastika issued on January 3 a directive announcing that all East German "non aryans and issue (children) of mixed marriages must be placed under special surveillance."

Until now this news had not leaked out from under the Iron Curtain. The directive has not been withdrawn by Stalin's successors.

So the leaders of the Jewish Labor Committee work harder to smuggle their brethren out of the satellite countries. The tricks of their underground railroad cannot be revealed here. But it can be disclosed that one band of Jews who used special techiques to flee Communist Poland, reported on March 14, that:

"The majority of those who came out are sick. Some were brought literally on stretchers — paralyzed, crippled. They do not want to utter a word, they beg that they be asked no questions, they are afraid to endanger the lives of their kin who remain.

"The memory of Hitler's time of hell in the ghettos is still fresh in our minds. Among us are a few of the surviving couriers (of that day) . . .'

To that band the Jewish Labor Committee sent word that the old rescue apparatus is being expanded.

What thinks Nathan Gregory Silvermaster now?

Explain To The Wife

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It used to be hard to get along with a wife.

Bless the Russians, that has all been changed — maybe.

All you have to do to get along with a wife now is to give the external evidence of listening to her.

Times have changed. It used to be after a husband returned from an evening of reckless adventure, he'd have to explain where he'd been.

That has all gone by the board—maybe.

A wife today — it says right here in bold English and non-truthful grammar — has a different view. She inquires where the world has gone during your rest period.

I find this only slightly harder to explain than where I have been the night before. But you have to satisfy a woman's natural curiosity about politics.

The last political remark I recall Frances making was in the late 1930's when she said acutely: "What does this fellow Hitler really do — take the part of a country he wants and then throw the rest of it away?"

Now she has finally written Adolf off and got her dander up at Russia and I don't see how there is any possible compromise between them, strong as she is.

"I have read up on all this Communist business," she said, "and I think Karl Marx ought to drop dead, if he is trying to invent the fight rules.'

"Marx has been dead for years.'

"So good. It should happen to Trotsky.'

"It has, dear. Marx is dead, Trotsky is dead, and—'

"And Lenin? Is he bent?"

"He's dead, too, dear. So is Stalin. Now there was a character, honey. Stalin started as a poor boy, studied for the priesthood, and became a great revolutionary figure, controlled the lives of more people through fear than anybody in history.'

"I'm glad he's dead. What did he die of?"

"The doctors said it was a stroke.'

"Well, it probably came from his father's side. I feel sorry for his mother. I hear he had three wives besides all that Communist rubbish.

"I don't know. He's kind of like his successor — Malenkov, a mystery."

"Who?"

"Malenkov!

"Who?"

"Malenkov! Malenkov!'

"Don't shout. You mean the fat one?"

"Yes.'

"Well, you just tell him from me that anybody as overweight as he is will never get elected again."

"But, dear, he—."

"Don't dear me! Incidentally, where were you last night?'

"I guess I'll have to backtrack. I started off by saying that the new feminine interest in international problems gave a fellow a breathing space. 'Tain't so. A wife's foreign policy always begins at home — in terms of her husband.

Progress In Education

By INEZ ROBB

This is the season of the year when college campuses are overrun with agents of big business and vast corporations dangling

Inez Robb

$10,000- a -year jobs in front of any beardless youth who will, Deo volente, receive a bachelor of science degree in June.

These geniuses, JG, disappear into the maws of the nation's great laboratores and are never heard of again until they win the Nobel Prize.

This is just dandy for the June corp of BS's. But what becomes of the BA's? I can partially answer this query, but only partially. I am a specialist in Harvard BA's alone. This is not due to snobbishness so much as enforced association.

IMMEDIATELY upon graduation, Harvard BA's become office or copy boys with New York newspapers and news agencies. And what is a copy boy?

Well, when I have finished this column, I shall yell "copy boy' at the top of my lungs and eventually a genteel, bespectacled youth will reluctantly and leisurely detach himself from his edition of Jean Paul Sartre, mooch over to my desk and carry the column to the city desk or editor.

This represents the greatest revolution in the newspaper business since the invention of the rotary press. Twenty years ago when I yelled "copy boy!" an urchin on the lam from the truant officer or worse reluctantly and leisurely detached himself from his galloping dominoes, mooched over to my desk and carried my copy to the city desk.

SO THIS is progress? Rhetorical question.

This revolution in the newspaper business and doubtless in Harvard BA's is a direct result of the depression.

Until 1929, all Harvard boys, in the course of an orderly world, went to work in Wall Street the day after graduation. Then Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected to the presidency and even Harvard boys had to find honest work.

One day the city room was infested with copy boys who, read, if anything, the comics and the Daily Racing Form. And the next, it was swarming with crew cuts and copies of T. S. Eliot's "The Wasteland."

One day I was loaning a juvenile deliquent $2 to put on a nag in the third at Belmont and the next I was advancing a quiz kid ten bucks for an autographed copy of "For Whom the Bell Tolls.'

IF YOU ASK me what effect this has had on the newspaper business, I can say right off it has had an intimidating influence on oldtimers like myself. We came up the hard way by pluck and luck, or with a degree—at best—from a state university, with which lowly institutions Harvard does not even maintain diplomatic relations.

There is something quite unnerving, even to a police reporter, in the spectacle of a Harvard copy boy, en route to the city desk, spotting three split infinitives in the first page of immortal prose just knocked off by the respondent.

Only three weeks ago, a crew-cut copy boy scared the daylights out of me by demanding an explanation of the word "ilk' in my copy. Before I burst into tears, the best I could do was "used as in "it's person of your ilk who are driving me nuts'!"

I SPOKE to the managing editor, but he says there is something in the Taft-Hartley law about not discriminating against Harvard boys who want to carry copy, and that I must be brave and brace myself for the new onslaught come June.

He also said to try to remember that the office has not had to buy a new dictionary or replace the encyclopedia since the Harvard invasion.

And he also said we can always hope that under the new Republican administration, Wall Street will soon be able to absorb Harvard lads as in the good, old days, which is obviously what made them good.

Fish Loaf Saves Time And Money

If you're trying to save pennies and time, you'll find your answer in this tuna fish loaf with cheese sauce. A delicious dinner that goes light on the family purse, it's especially welcome because it's easy to prepare, too.

dash of pepper
1 cup liquefied nonfat dry milk
¼ lb. (¾ cup) sharp cheddar cheese

Melt butter in saucepan; stir in flour and pepper. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in liquefied nonfat dry milk powder. Return to heat. Cook, stirring constantly until smooth and slightly thickened. Add cheese; stir until cheese melts. Makes about 1½ cups.

¾ cup cold water
½ cup syrup from canned cling peaches
dash of salt
¼ cup lemon juice
6 tablespoons sugar
1 medium size ripe banana (sieved)
1 cup drained canned cling peach slices
½ cup cream (whipped)

Sprinkle gelatin over ¼ cup cold water and allow to soften. Heat peach syrup until boiling hot; add to softened gelatin; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add remaining ½ cup cold water, salt, lemon juice and sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in sieved banana, peaches, and cream. Pour into one large or individual molds; chill until firm; unmold if desired. Makes 8 small servings.

Next time you are cooking frozen peas, try adding a dash of sugar to the cooking water.

Beef And Kidney Pie Is Good Budget Item

Here's a savory dish we had in Chicago last month. They told us it is very popular there. It tastes good and is a good budget item.

Beef and Kidney Pie
(6 servings)

1 beef kidney
1½ lbs. beef stew meat
flour
fat
2 medium onions (chopped)
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
2½ cups water
½ standard recipe pie pastry

Soak kidney in cold, salted water for ½ hour; split and remove fat and heavy veins. Cut stew meat and kidney into 1-inch cubes. Flour meats and brown thoroughly in a little hot fat in a heavy pan. Add onions, seasonings and water. Simmer 2 hours.

Thicken with 1 tablespoon flour, mixed to a paste with a little water Pour into a greased 1½-quart casserole and top with pastry. (Roll out crust ½-inch larger than top of casserole. Press edges firmly against sides and slit top in several places). Bake 30 minutes in hot oven (425 degrees F.).

If you're seeking something different for spring luncheons, this recipe may be one unusual answer.

Deviled Dixies
(Makes 1 cup, enough spread for 6 average-size waffles)

Corn meal waffles, butter, 2 cans deviled ham, ½ cup spicy apple butter.

Make corn meal waffles according to easy directions on package of corn meal muffin mix. Dot hot waffles with butter and spread with combined deviled ham and apple butter. Serve piping hot.

April Food Supply Is Good News

From Washington, D. C. comes a heartening report for the food budget. There is an abundance of beef, broiling and frying chickens, turkeys, and eggs. When supplies are in abundance you can expect prices to drop.

Like cabbage — tender, young and crisp? Well, from Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, California and northern Florida, fresh spring cabbage is rolling to market. And potatoes — both "old crop" bakers from Maine and Idaho, and "new crop" potatoes from Florida and Alabama — are tumbling headlong into your grocers' bins.

Oranges and grapefruit are in large supply, too. So is canned tomato juice. And the popular dairy products — butter, Cheddar cheese, cottage cheese, nonfat dry milk and buttermilk — are in heavy supply.

All good news — nutrition-wise, menu-wise and dollar-wise.

From the Massachusetts Extension Service comes this spring egg recipe:

Stuffed Egg Salad

Six hard-cooked eggs
½ cup cooked spinach or 2 tablespoons parsely or chives
1 tablespoon chopped onion
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt

Cut eggs lengthwise and remove yolks. Combine yolks with finely chopped spinach, onion, salt and mayonnaise. Stuff whites with mixture. Serve on lettuce with a little French dressing on the lettuce or a spoonful of mayonnaise.

Cooking experts of the United States Department of Agriculture have this suggestion for using the April abundance of potatoes and cheese.

Cheesed Potato Balls

Twelve small potatoes
¾ cup grated Cheddar cheese
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon minced parsley
¼ teaspoon paprika

Boil potatoes in jackets. When done, peel and place in greased casserole. Sprinkle with salt, cover with grated cheese. Place under broiler or in oven to melt cheese. Garnish with chopped parsley and paprika just before serving.

HOT BEEF PIE

Hot beef pie makes a hearty buffet main dish. Top the beef pie with biscuits, making sure to have plenty more on the side. Serve with a mixed vegetable salad. Have apple pie with cheese for dessert.

DASHBOARD COFFEE POT— Here's the answer for parched throats of many American morning commuters. A German importer in New York is introducing this gadget, a coffee pot which plugs into the cigaret outlet on the dashboard of a car. Just add the coffee and 10 minutes later awaken yourself with a hot cup of "Java."

Berries, Rhubarb Zip Up Menus

Strawberries, fresh or frozen, and rhubarb can add a lot to your spring menus. So let's take a look at these very tempting recipes worked up in Fruitland, Md., in the testing kitchens of a well-known frozen food company. They use frozen strawberries and rhubarb. Substitute fresh fruit if you prefer.

Rhubarb-Strawberry Pie

Defrost one 12-ounce package of rhubarb and a 12-ounce package of strawberries just enough to separate. Mix 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca and ½ cup sugar and mix with fruit; let stand 15 minutes.

Prepare pastry for 8-inch pie. Cover bottom crust with 1 tablespoon melted butter. Pour in fruit mixture and add another tablespoon melted butter. Cover with lattice crust. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 35 to 45 minutes.

Strawberry Supreme
(Serves 4-6)

Defrost and mash 1 package of frozen strawberries, add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ cup of sugar and 1 cup of sour cream. Blend thoroughly and pour into refrigerator trays. Freeze for 2 or 3 hours, stirring once or twice during freezing time. Serve with tiny cookies. For something extra special, serve Strawberry Supreme on half-inch slices of sponge cake. Top with frozen strawberries, defrosted but not mashed.

Parisian Strawberries
(Serves 4-6)

Defrost 1 package frozen strawberries. Add ¼ cup sugar and heat over low flame until berries come to a boil. Allow to boil about 1 minute. After removing from fire and chilling thoroughly, serve with generous scoops of vanilla ice cream. If desired, top with whipped cream flavored with a little kirsch or sherry.

After-school snack: Soften peanut butter with a little mayonnaise and use as a stuffing for celery stalks. Cut the stuffed celery into attractive two-inch wedges.

Gumbo Makes Appetite Satisfier

Golden circles of pineapple slices crown the goodness of tender rice seasoned with gumbo soup in this dish.

This appetite satisfier uses inexpensive rice as the base for a gumbo which has all the old fashioned goodness of genuine Southern cooking but with a new fashioned "ready in a hurry" preparation.

BAKED GUMBO WITH RICE

1 cup cooked chicken, diced
1 cup cooked ham, diced
1 10½-oz. can condensed chicken gumbo soup
¾ cup water
3 cups cooked rice
2 tablespoons chopped pimento
6 slices pineapple
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
18 whole cloves

Combine chicken, ham, soup, water, rice and pimento and mix well. Place mixture in greased individual casseroles or in a greased shallow baking dish. Top with the pineapple slices.

On each pineapple slice sprinkle the brown sugar, dot with the butter or margarine and stick in three cloves. Bake at 375 F. for 15 minutes or until the pineapple is glazed and the mixture is thoroughly heated.

Standing Rib Roast Is Easy To Prepare

What can really be a more delectable Sunday treat than a standing rib roast? So, with beef prices down, let's try a standing rib roast.

Talk over with your meat man the selection of your roast. Demand a roast starting from the twelfth rib, known as a "first cut." This is the first cut next to the loin or steak section and contains the largest portion of the tender, large "eye" muscle.

Your dealer probably sells rib roasts at three different prices due to the difference in tenderness and ease in slicing. The "first" cut is the finest roast.

Larger rib roasts, called sixth and seventh ribs, are cut from the section near the shoulder pot roasts and are less tender and usually lower priced.

Make certain you get top-quality meat well streaked with white or creamy fat. Ask for a roast that has been aged for added tenderness and flavor. Have the short ribs removed for a "short cut" roast. Save for a later meal for the family.

Purchase at least a 2-rib or 4 pounds of meat for a roast. Plan on 1-3 to ½ pound of meat per serving after the removal of the short ribs. Unwrap roast at once and cover loosely with waxed paper or the inner wrapper in which it was wrapped. Keep the roast in the refrigerator and use it within 5 to 8 days.

Standing rib of beef roasts are easy to prepare. Wipe the roast with a damp cloth or paper towel, place it fat side up in a shallow open pan and roast in a pre-heated slow oven (325 degrees F.) until the thermometer indicates the degree of doneness you desire. Do not add water and do not cover the roast during cooking.

Use a roast thermometer. An internal temperature of 140 degrees F. indicates a rare roast, 160 degrees F. a medium one and 170 degrees F. a well-done roast.

An 8-pound standing rib roast will require about 3 hours to reach the rare stage, 3½ hours to medium and 4½ to the well-done stage.

If yours is a very large roast (over 10 pounds) and you wish it to be rare, remove it from the oven just before it reaches 140 degrees F., for it will continue cooking a bit after its removal from the oven.

Serve Young Duck With Hot Noodles

Long Island, N.Y. is now white with beautiful ducklings. A new way of cooking these tender fowl is suggested here.

Sour Cream Casserole of Duck
(Yield: 4 generous servings)

Five to 6-pound (dressed weight) Long Island duckling
3 tablespoons fat
3 tablespoons finely diced onion
1 clove garlic (minced)
3 tablespoons wine vinegar
one 3-ounce can broiled mushrooms
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon thyme
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1-3 cup water
1 cup thick sour cream

With sharp, pointed knife cut duck skin from neck to vent along center of breast. Peel layer of skin and fat back as it is loosened, cutting skin where necessary, but keeping flesh intact. Cut duck in serving-size pieces.

Melt fat in frying pan over moderate heat. Add pieces of skinned duck and brown lightly on all sides. Add onion and garlic and let cook one minute. Add wine vinegar and mushrooms including broth. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and thyme. Bring to boil. Pour into 2-quart casserole.

Cover tightly and place in moderate oven (350 F.). Let bake until duck is tender, about one hour. In a small saucepan blend together the cornstarch and water. Add sour cream and cook over moderate heat until thickened. Pour over duck in casserole and stir until mixed with juices. Serve with hot cooked noodles which have been tossed with caraway or poppy seeds.

THE BIG SMOKE—The loss was negligible when a junk yard burned at Santa Rosa, Calif., but the smell certainly wasn't spring-like. That boiling black smoke came from a large stack of used tires. The only ones who enjoyed the fire were the small fry, home from school on Easter vacation. The dense blanket of smoke brought them from all parts of town.

Ohio Gamblers Report Low Income

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gamblers in 22 Northeastern Ohio counties reported a March take of $189,340—an all time low, Department of Internal Revenue figures showed today.

Starting in November, 1951, gamblers were required by federal law to buy a stamp and pay the government 10 per cent of the total bet. They handed over $18,934 for last month.

Top month since the new law was July, 1952, when gamblers paid $43,993 on a take of $439,937.

So successful has the drive against gambling been, said the police racket squad in Cleveland, that one construction firm has 30 known former bookies gainfully employed at a steel plant.

Kiwanis Club Among 100 Per Cent Voters

The Kiwanis Club has qualified for 100 per cent participation in the Chamber of Commerce's "Get-Out-The Vote" campaign which was conducted last November.

The Kiwanis Club was not included in the group of four service clubs which were given special recognition last week by the C. of C. However, as the result of a recheck on a serviceman's address and several members who voted in suburban districts, the Kiwanians have been elevated from 98 to 100 per cent membership vote.

Judge's Robes Stolen; . . Church Deacon Nabbed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The mystery of the disappearance of Superior Judge William Neeley's robes has been solved.

Police detectives arrested a City Hall janitor, James Langley, 50, on suspicion of burglary, and quoted him:

"I just sort of borrowed those robes to preach in, because I'm a deacon in my church."

In the course of time, the bulletins will cover such topics as sales, service, collections, courtesy, and human relations. They have been created specifically to train youths of newspaperboy age.

"a hale cobbler is a better man than a sick king"

THROUGH THE YEARS many wise men have emphasized the true richness of glowing, vibrant health. No one has summarized the almost universal recognition of the value of health better than Bickerstaff, who said, "A hale cobbler is a better man than a sick king."

The chief job of the physician and the pharmacist is to keep you well. To this end both are educated, equipped, and dedicated in purpose. Narcotics Agents Nab Airlines Pilot

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—State narcotics agents have arrested a Transocean Airlines pilot described as a key figure in smuggling dope from the Orient.

Agents said Roy E. MacArthur, 34, was arrested yesterday at an Oakland drive-in as he exchanged five ounces of pure heroin for $1,200. His customer was State Narcotics Inspector Vincent Chasten, who had arranged to meet MacArthur while posing as "a big-time vice lord.'

Chasten said he had previously made three $250 purchases of heroin from the pilot. He said MacArthur had promised to eventually furnish him enough heroin to retail for more than two million dollars.

Arrested at MacArthur's apartment was Miss Racquel Jatica, 25, a night-club entertainer known professionally as Terry Lee.

Both MacArthur and Miss Jatica were booked for possession of narcotics. He was also booked on four counts of sale of narcotics and she as an addict.
